"The New Esprit Collection"

This evening curator Julie ^{Silber} will take us inside the Esprit Collection for an in-depth look at this ever changing corporate treasure of more than 200 antique quilts. For many years exclusively "Amish," the Esprit collection is now expanding to include spectacular examples of applique and one-of-a-kind "folk art" quilts. The talk will include slides of the renowned Esprit building and installation photos of the quilts on permanent display.

Julie has collected and studied quilts for more than 25 years and is a lecturer, author and curator. She has held her post at Esprit since 1982 while being involved in major exhibitions such as "Heritage Quilts" for the Oregon Historical Society. She also works on quilt-related projects like the prize-winning film by Pat Ferrero, "Quilts in Women's Lives." Ms. Silber co-produced the film "Hearts and Hands" and co-authored the book of the same name. We are very pleased indeed to have this opportunity to meet such a noted expert on our rich heritage as women and quilters.

Many thanks to Jan Inouye for providing hospitality for Julie during her stay in Santa Barbara.

Opportunity Quilt: Harriet Berk reminded us that the drawing for this quilt is in November. Please be sure to turn in your money to her. $990.00 in tickets

December: Fun, Caring and Sharing

Our community service quilts will be presented at our December meeting. We'll follow the presentation with food, games, fun and treats. Bring a plateful of your holiday favorites for the refreshment table and two Fat Quarters (18" x 22") wrapped. Santa showed up last year . . . who knows what surprises are in store for us this year?

Bring Canned Goods and Staples to the December meeting and we'll make sure they get to a local charity to brighten the holidays for the needy of our community.

Linda Ruth shared her wonderful quilt collection.

A Great Theme and Long Weekend for Our Show in 1995

"Quilts from Traditional to Outrageous" will be the subtitle and theme for "Natural Impressions 2" in 1995. This suggestion is from Ruth Walters, who put it anonymously in the box, but later owned up to authorship after the show committee chose it at the meeting held September 22.

It was announced that a preliminary agreement has been reached with the Museum League to divided any profit from the 1995 event with the Museum League receiving 40% of the proceeds. The Guild will keep the remaining 60%. This makes the event an official Museum function with all the privileges associated with that status.

A change of date has been arranged as the first weekend in May was not available. The new dates are May 26-29, Memorial Day Weekend, 1995. This will allow the exhibit to run one day longer, increasing our income from admissions. It was felt that the I Modannari street painting festival taking place at the Mission the same time will only increase our attendance. Effort was made to keep our event from conflicting with other guilds' shows.

It was agreed that every attempt will be made to have our members' quilts shown at the exhibit. Judy Gorrindo volunteered to work out the logistics for this.

We are seeking a chairman for the Vendors Committee to investigate the feasibility of having vendors of quilting supplies and/or related fibre crafts at the exhibit. This might be simply an advisory role, or an more involved one, depending on how many volunteers we get. Anyone interested should contact either Norah (962-8511) or Jan (962-3498).

If you have any suggestions for vendors we should invite, please put them in the Natural Impressions box at the entrance.

ALL ARE WELCOME

COASTAL QUILTERS GUILD MEETING: October 13, 1993

President Barbara Maxwell called the general meeting to order at 7:35 p.m. in Samarkand. There were approximately 105 members present plus three guests. Barbara Davis thanked all those members who had brought refreshments.

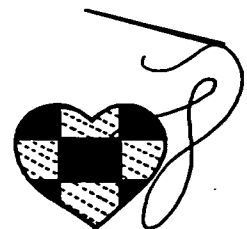

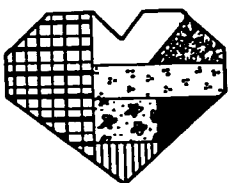

Norah McMeeking introduced our speaker for the evening, Christen Brown, who spoke on "Embellished Surfaces." Various members of the Guild modeled Christen's garments, which were all heavily ornamented with stitchery, beadwork, and shisha mirrors. Christen explained that her work has been influenced by the artist, Erte, and the designer, Schapparelli. She also makes jewelry, dolls and masks, often to co-ordinate with her garments.

After a short break, we resumed with the business meeting. We need help working on our special S.B. Quilt. The next meeting for this project is Nov. 22, at Barbara Maxwell's home.

Lee Carlson handled the drawing for the five door prizes including a book of quilt postcards and a bag of potpourri.

Marty Frolli handled Block of the Month for Maggie Godwin, explaining the Candy Corn block due in November. Ingrid Bergere won the 15 Frog blocks.

Eight members shared their works at Show & Tell.

Curators of the 1993-94 Hoffman Challenge have selected the quilts (and dolls and garments) which will comprise the collections which will tour nationally for the next year. Three judges selected two collections of fifty quilts each, judging on the basis of artistic interpretation, workmanship, and fabric-color coordination. Quilts in collection "A" and collection "B" are divided equally to include a variety of designs and techniques with prize winning quilts included in each collection.

The letter sent to entrants states "Please realize that all entrants are winners by just completing the Challenge."

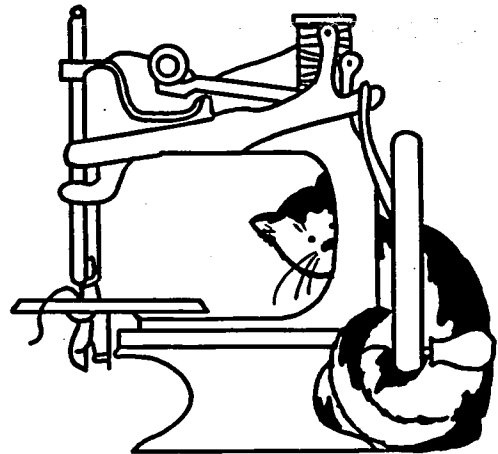

The Coastal Quilters Guild is represented in both Collections. "Let There Be Light" by Maggie Godwin will tour with Collection A, while Harriet Berk's "Space Adventure" was selected for Collection B. Harriet's quilt - a spaceship with pinwheels in blues and reds was viewed at Show and Tell in September. Maggie's quilt is a Lone Star in rainbow colors, with over 1,100 tiny diamonds.

Entrants were awarded Hoffman fabric and a cloisonne pin designed from the challenge fabric.

A GREAT SEWING OFFER!

Among needle artists are available to do your hand quilting, locally, in their home. These are very skillful women and are able to follow directions in English. You supply a completed top, batting, back, and thread, basted and marked with quilting design. They have had successful collaboration with Amish women in Pennsylvania! Contact: Anne Deran (Guild member) at 687-9537. She is willing to be the 'go-between'.

Happy
Thanksgiving!

COASTAL QUILTERS GUILD BOARD MEETING: October 20, 1993

Guild president Barbara Maxwell called the board meeting to order in her home office at 7:30 p.m. Nine members were present: Barbara, Zetta, Carol Boyce, Bonnie Bergman, Suzy Carter, Barbara Davis,, Lynn Laughrin, Norah McMeeking, and Laura Alarid. Minutes of the last board meeting were read and approved.

Business: Linda Clark cannot continue with the lap robes project for Samarkand. Suzy Carter generously offered to take over and lead this project.

Suzy reported that St. Vincents' Home is closing their baby unit and has returned to us the ten quilts that we donated to them two years ago. It was decided that they should now go to Transition House.

Claire Hemke has volunteered to help next year with Community Projects.

Zetta is set to hang the Challenge quilts in the Children's Room at the Goleta Library for the month of December.

Suzy Carter reported that our Museum Quilt has finally been restored to a nice display.

Programs: Norah had done some wonderful work in planning programs for 1994. She and Joanne Hankey will discuss some possible schedule changes. Her estimate of costs was approved.

It was recommended that we enter next year's Baltimore Album Opportunity Quilt in as many quilt shows as possible.

Lynn Laughrin spoke on behalf of the HomeArts display at Earl Warren Showgrounds Fair. They would like to have more involvement from Guild members and would like suggestions. It was suggested that they change the way the quilts are hung; that perhaps someone from the Guild could be on the Fair board; and that perhaps quilters from other guilds could be used as judges.

Barbara Maxwell will host a Christmas part on December 15, to include all officers and chairs for both 1993 and 1994. It will be a pot-luck with people from '93 bringing the food for next year's people.

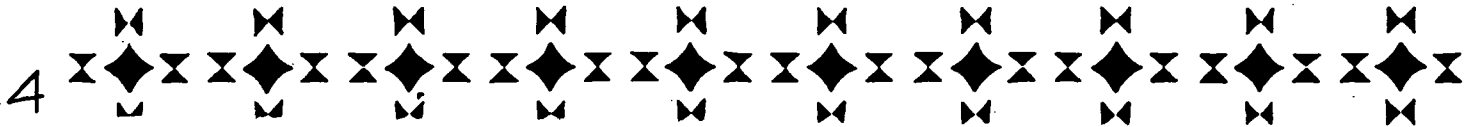

At our regular December meeting, we will hang our Baltimore Album quilt on the stage for the presentation of our quilts to Transition House. Norah is working on games and ideas for this party.

The meeting was adjourned at 9 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Zetta Hanna

SUBJECT: NEW RELEASES

Please find our most recent edition, Lively Little Logs: Making Log Cabin Miniatures for your Guild Library. The most popular quilt block of all times is of course the Long Cabin. Here it is in the most delightful miniature form. Donna Fite McConnell has shown the quilter how to construct these beauties with little or no effort and use them not only for wall hangings but other accessories as well.

Included along with the gallery and directions are patterns and some wonderful embellishments and labels. Simply choose from 12-, 36-, 54-, or 64- block designs to complete a quilt, then add applique, finish the edges with Prairie Points if you like, and a pretty label to the back. All the how tos you need are included in this beautiful book of beautiful little quilts.

Thank you to Jean MacMillan for her donation of the A.Q.S. 1993 Quilt Show and Contest video to our library.

"Little Quilts" by Alice Berg is the latest book donated by That Patchwork Place.

Satellite Groups - Here are a few words about another one of our wonderful groups that you may be interested in!

The Loosey Gooseys - A satellite group, consisting of 12 members, which meets on the third Monday evening of each month of members homes. We share lots of ideas with each other, both quilting and non quilting. Each member makes a block, previously assigned, for the current month's hostess. One of the rules is that the block cannot take more than 2 hours to make, thus ruling out Baltimore Album Blocks. We have been meeting a long time and have shared a lot of good times together. For information please call Jane Manasse - 687-0301.

If you think hard you will remember back to the beginning of the year when we announced that a drawing will be held in January. Anyone who has made at least ten blocks-of-the-month during 1993 will be automatically entered.

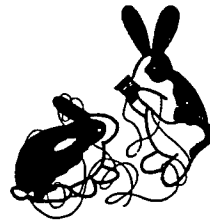

Maggie's records indicate that the following guild members have already qualified:

Janet Berlin
Karin Cooper
Linda Estrada
Doris Floyd
Maggie Godwin
Nancy Horii
Pat Masterson
Joya Miles

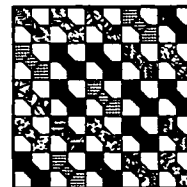

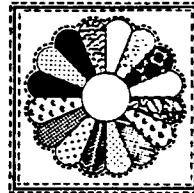

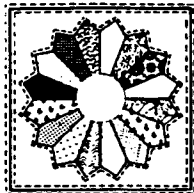

The following members are close (the number after your name is the number of blocks you still need to make to qualify):

Barbara Davis - 1
Marge Hall - 4
Violet Henderson - 1
Carol Ludwick - 1
Farideh Maho - 4
Barbara Maxwell - 10
Cecilia Puppo - 4
Nancy Woyak - 3

If you feel you have qualified but your name is not listed please contact Maggie.

Remember that anyone can qualify for the drawing by submitting a total of ten blocks at the December and January meetings.

The deadline for news to get something in the current newsletter is the first Wed. of the month.

Nominations: Mary Vandenberg reported that most of the positions have been filled. Only three volunteer openings remain. Please call her if you can take one of them. Barbara invited all nominated officers and chairs to come to the next Board meeting at her home.

Please contact Claire Hemke - Quilts are due for Transition House now for presentation in the Dec. Meeting! 569-0442

BLOCK OF THE MONTH - NOVEMBER 1993

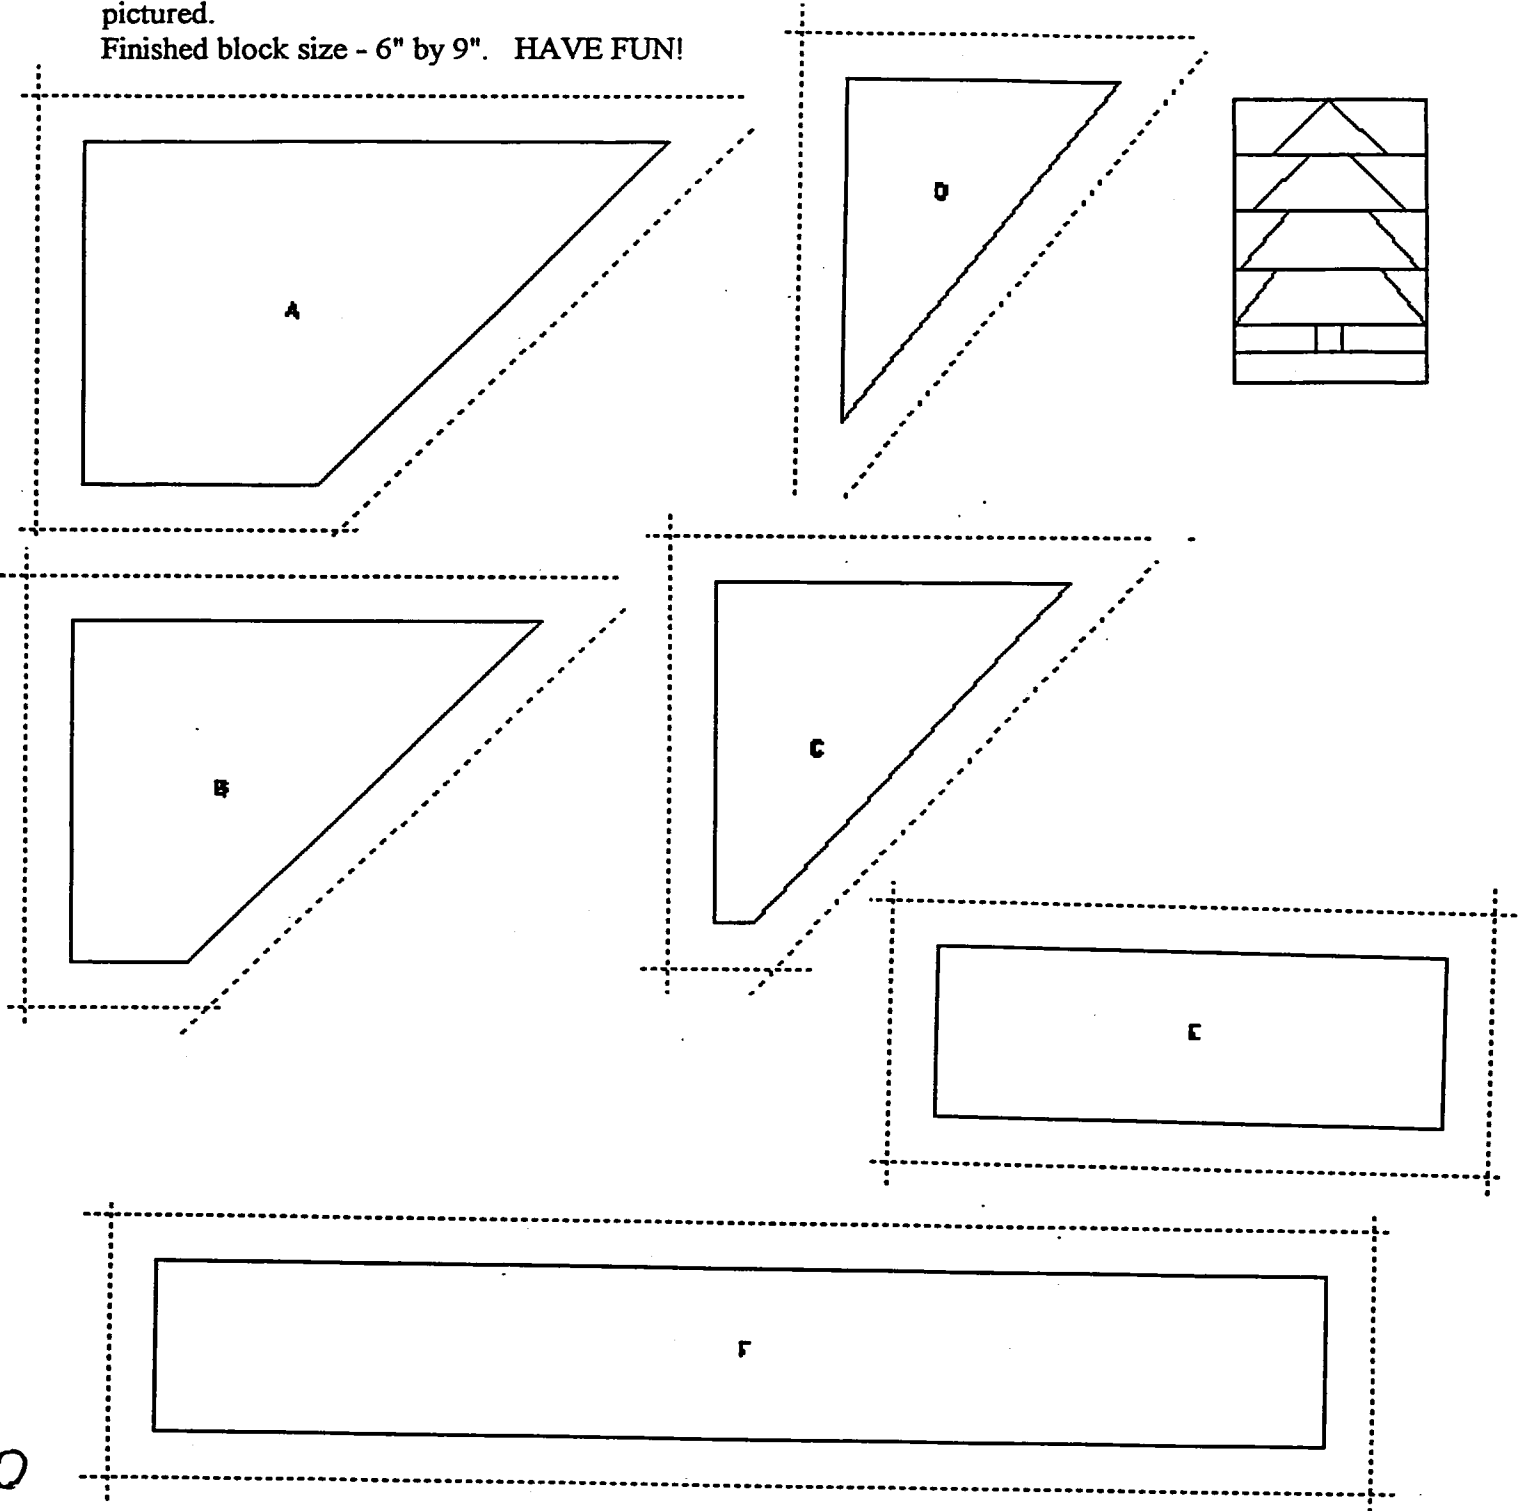

CHRISTMAS TREE

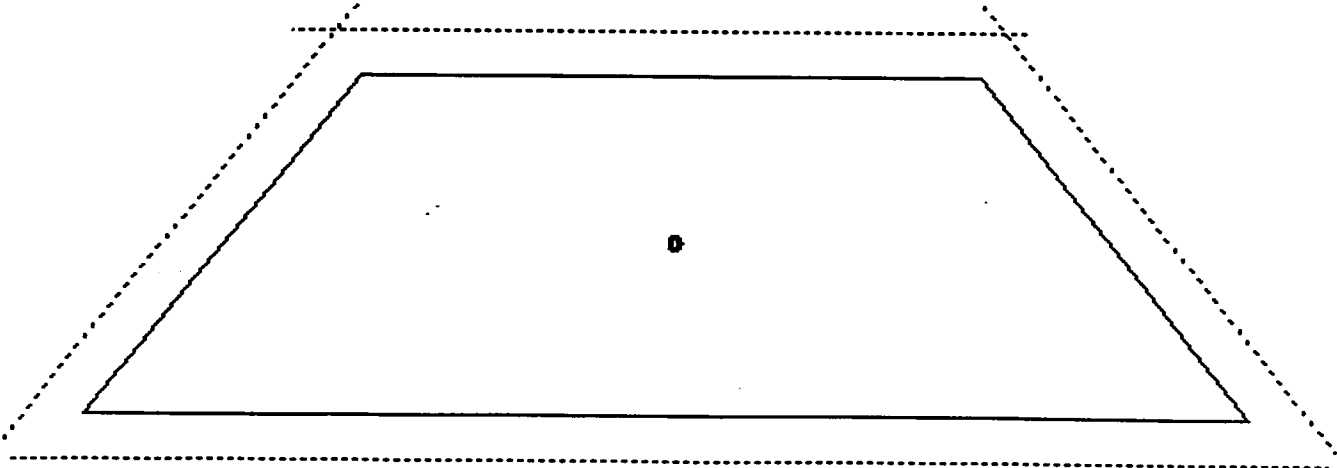

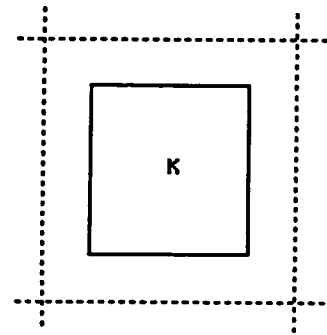

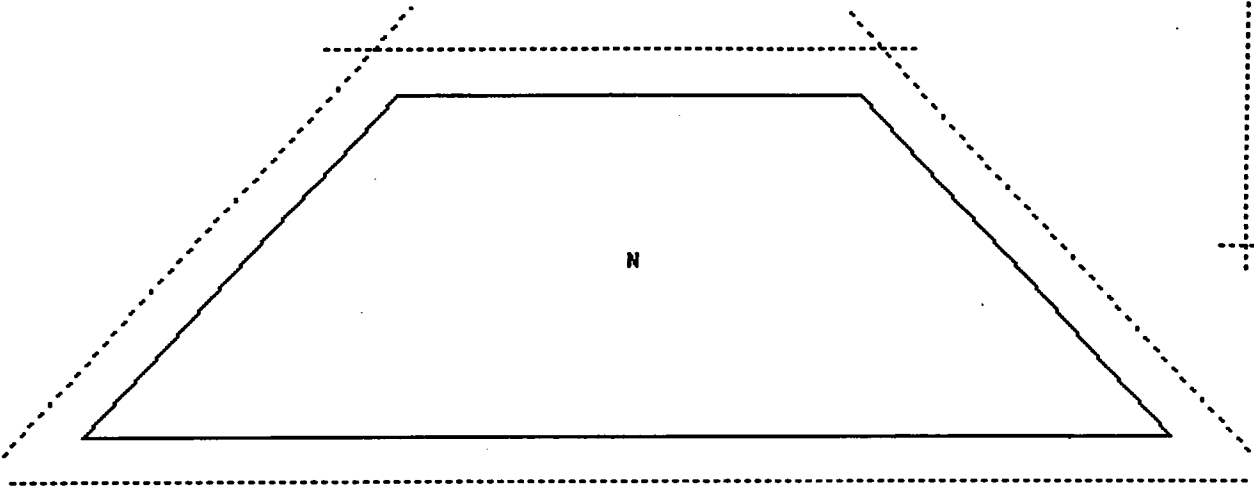

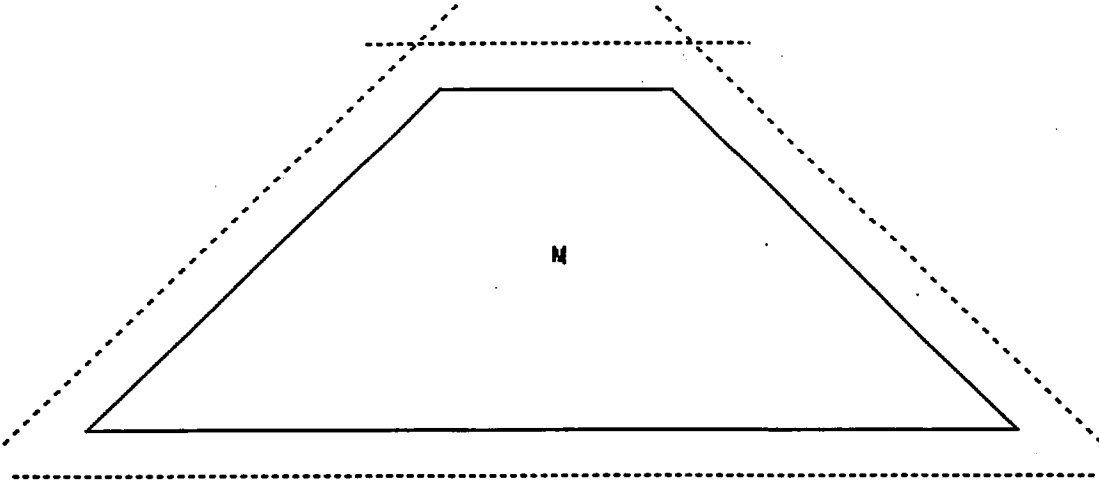

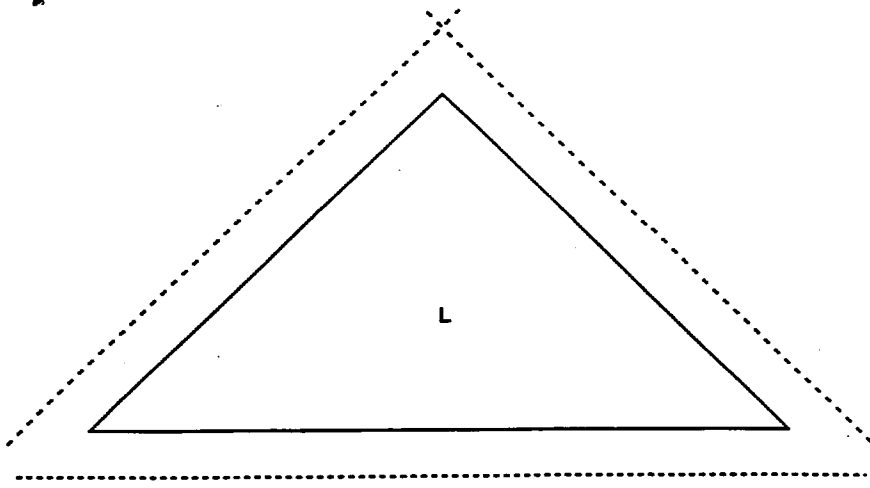

From various Christmas prints, cut one each piece L, M, N, O, and K.

From a white on white background (or white on beige, beige on white, or beige on beige) cut one each A, B, C, and D and one each of the following pieces reversed - A, B, C, and D. Cut two piece E's and one piece F.

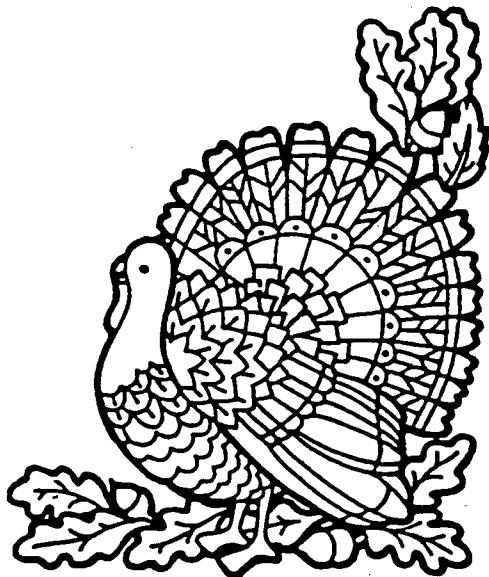

Sew A and A-reversed to L, B and B-reversed to M, C and C-reversed to N, D and D-reversed to O, and an E to either side of K. Sew the six strips (including piece F described above) to form the block pictured.

Finished block size - 6" by 9". HAVE FUN!

What is brown and roundish and smells divine?
The turkey, of course, when its aroma fills our homes and reminds us of so many special fourth Thursdays in November. But don't be a turkey-- take some time for your own needs (quilting being one of them) and don't forget to wish the following members a wonderful day
