❄️❄️❄️ December is the Annual Guild Holiday Party ❄️❄️❄️

You Are Invited!

The holidays are all about tradition and the annual Guild holiday party is no exception.

Tradition #1: Each member brings a plate of goodies to share. The kitchen will remain open all evening for your "grazing" pleasure. Tables and chairs will be set up so that you do not have to balance all those yummy calories on your knees.

Tradition #2: Fabric Exchange. This year the color is RED. Bring as many 6-inch squares as you wish. Swap squares with other traders and expand your RED squares collection.

Tradition #3: Orphan Block(s) donation. Only in its second year, this opportunity was a great hit in 2008 and promises to become a favorite guild tradition. Your donated blocks will be sent to a guild in Washington where they will be combined into charity quilts. Blocks of all sizes, colors, and patterns are accepted. Pass along those blocks you just shake your head at – put them to good use!

Our special December speaker is Joe Cunningham, quilter and musician extraordinaire. Joe began making quilts professionally in 1979, after a ten-year career as a musician in Michigan. His early mentors were steeped in the history and traditions of quilts, leading Cunningham to a life of study in quilt history and a love of traditional technique. Over the years his work has evolved into a unique personal style both original and shaped by the tradition. Cunningham travels throughout the country to give lectures and workshops on quilt making. He has two new books coming out with AQS in 2010, one on men who make quilts and one on his own life and work. He has been seen on the HGTV series "Simply Quilts with Alex Anderson," as well as "The Quilt Show" with Ricky Tims and Alex Anderson. Joe will perform his original show, "Joe the Quilter," a musical tribute to a real-life quilter from England.

Plus we'll have the regular activities; Treasure Table; Door Prizes; Workshop/Bus Trip sign-ups; Community Quilts; Block-of-the-Month; Library; and Show & Tell.

The big finale to the evening... (drum roll please).... is the drawing of the Opportunity Quilt winning ticket!

Come early and come hungry!

Holiday Donation

Please join other Guild members in donating a new pair or package of socks and/or underwear to the Women's Free Health Clinic at our December Guild meeting. The WFHC is for homeless women who sleep at one of the shelters in town or live on the streets. The clinic meets at Transition House every other Friday morning from 9am to 1pm and provides services performed by doctors, nurses, social workers, and Planned Parenthood. The women can take showers, wash their clothes, receive a donation of new socks and underwear, toiletries, a warm meal, and have a safe, warm place to relax for the morning. About 20 women ranging in age from about 18 to mid-60's attend each clinic, and there are some regulars who have attended since the clinic opened last December. The WFHC very much needs new underwear and socks of all sizes, so please remember this as you do your holiday shopping. There will be a donation box near the sign-in desk at the December Guild meeting. Please e-mail Diane Eardley at eardley@lifesci.ucsb.edu or call at 963-8321 if you have further questions.

Community Quilts Project

The Community Quilt Project has been a heartwarming experience for us. We thank you for your enthusiasm which has produced approximately 25 quilts in just a few short months. As everyone who attended the Guild meeting can testify, your work is incredibly beautiful. As one member stated she would love to have one on her bed. Your generosity of time and fabric has resulted in these works of love. Your donation will most definitely find a wonderful home with someone in need. You have our admiration.

We also want to thank all of you who have donated fabric. Your donations, together with our purchases, have given us the opportunity to assemble some very attractive quilt kits. Batting and some backing fabric are still available for those who are using their own fabric stash. So, please stop by our table at the December meeting to find that quilt kit which is calling out your name. Don't forget in the hustle and bustle of the Holidays to find time to do what you love—QUILT.

From Darilyn's Desk

Even though December is not the end of our fiscal year, it is the traditional month of reflection. We take toll and evaluate all that has happened during the past 12 months.

As I reflect on 2009 there are 258 outstanding high points in the past year - each and every guild member! It is because of your commitment and participation that our guild is able to support our community in a very real way. Your generosity over the 20+ year guild history has provided us with a large cash reserve. Your elected Board voted to donate 20% of our reserves to local organizations. That is a whopping $5000 that will be returned back into our community to help us and our neighbors in a variety of ways. Please see the "Sharing Good Tidings with Our Community" article in this newsletter to find out how the money was distributed. And know that by having fun, enjoying friendships and participating in guild activities, you have made a difference.

Thank you on so many different levels!

Wishing you a healthy and happy holiday season,

Darilyn

Handy Tip is Tried and True!

Have you been frustrated when your washer's agitator turns YOUR new fabric into a tangled wet mess, only to have the tangle repeated in your dryer - making ironing a chore? Well, RELAX! Barb Postma shared this great tip with us at November's Guild meeting - I gave it a try and was amazed at the results:

Match up the fabric's "selvage" edges, just like you would do when adjusting the fabric for strip cutting with a rotary blade. Using safety pins (the large number 2 size works great), pin the selvages together about every 10 to 12 inches. Wash and dry your fabric as usual. When you pull it out of the dryer the fabric will NOT be tangled up, and contain a lot fewer wrinkles, too. You'll still need to iron the fabric smooth, but it will be SO much easier and faster!

Thanks, Barb, for this fantastic tip -- I'll remember you every time I wash fabric from now on!

Material-ly Yours,
The Rambling Rose

Future Programs

January

Yvonne Porcella will be appearing on our stage this month. Get ready to laugh. She's written 8 books for your reading pleasure. She specializes in wearables and also in art quilts. Dogs, Frogs & Cherubs will be her lecture and Painting & Embellishment will be her workshop on Friday. There will be a $25 fee for the paints, brushes, etc. This workshop must be limited to 20 participants, so sign up early to get a seat.

February

Andi Perejda's Quilt Designs lecture will surely keep our interest. Maybe Jeanne Surber, our own guild member, will also tell us all about her association with Andi. The workshop, Circle of Illusion, will be 'eye-popping' I'm told. AND...deceptively simple to make. Andi is a quilter as well as a NQA Certified Judge. She states that quilting is an insuppressible urge, perhaps an obsession with her. Can we relate?

March

It's our Coastal Quilter's Challenge - oh boy! Arrive early for the hanging of your exquisite creation. Then leisurely examine all the entries. VOTE for your favorites. And...possibly you'll become a big winner. Wouldn't that be marvelous? You would have bragging rights for a whole year. This is always a fun evening. Be sure to jot this date down on your calendars.

Sharing Good Tidings with Our Community

Throughout the year Coastal Quilters Guild receives a wide variety of inquiries from local groups and agencies, soliciting our help with special projects to benefit people in need in our community. Many times we can answer this call by donating goods, such as our ongoing canned and boxed food collection to benefit the local Food Bank, or through the expression of our own creativity, as evidenced in our annual "Community Quilts" projects like this year's Hospice and Fostering Friends programs. We also make annual monetary donations of $250.00 to the Marie Webster Quilters Hall of Fame in Marion, Indiana and $500.00 to the Children's Creative Project, by sponsoring a square at the I Madonnari event held at the Old Mission in Santa Barbara every Memorial Day weekend.

The nation's economy has been hard-hit this past year and nearly everyone has found the need to adjust their spending habits to cope with these changes. Even in our somewhat affluent local community, many more individuals and families have found themselves struggling with their financial limitations and their resulting despair, realizing that they may never be able to improve their living conditions.

Over the last several months the Board has seriously discussed how we as a Guild can further make a difference in our community. As a result, several worthy agencies and local non-profits have been considered. At November's meeting the Board unanimously resolved to make the following monetary donations:

$2,500.00 to St. Andrews Presbyterian Church, earmarked towards their capital improvement plans for the meeting hall to upgrade lighting and install fans to provide better air circulation. The church has provided a wonderful long-term solution that serves the Guild's meeting and storage needs at an extremely reasonable monthly rate. With this "Thank You" gift earmarked for specific purposes, the Guild will also benefit from these long-term improvements.

$ 500.00 to Goleta Valley Community Center, earmarked towards facility improvements. The Guild has regularly used the Center for a variety of reasons at a very reasonable rental fee.

$1,500.00 to the Unity Shoppe for its year-round distribution needs. Donated funds are used to purchase wholesale close-out merchandise so that better and more products can be added to their inventory. For example, this donation will sponsor clothing, gifts and groceries for SIX families of four. Their "free" store is stocked with baby items, preschool gifts, girls' and boys' toys, radios, watches, as well as children's clothing, books, art and school supplies. More than 288 non-profit organizations, social service agencies, churches, schools and hospitals refer over 19,000 people yearly for food, clothing and basic necessities, including over 8,800 children.

$ 250.00 to the Women's Free Health Clinic of Santa Barbara to assist with their ongoing financial needs, in addition to our holiday donations of underwear and socks collected at the November and December Guild meetings.

$ 250.00 to Habitat for Humanity of Southern Santa Barbara County to assist in providing opportunities for low income families to buy and own simple, decent, affordable homes. For example, this donation could help buy a front door, or two windows plus three gallons of paint. Their most recently completed project on Via Lucero provided three homes for twelve deserving people, including seven children. Their newest project on San Pascual Street, still in the funding and final approval stages, will consist of three 2-bedroom, 1.5-bath homes, and one 1-bedroom, 1-bath home, together providing permanent, stable homes for four families.

Hoover Pockets, Potholders, and Postage Stamp Maple Leaves

Karin Cooper introduced me to the term "Hoover Pockets", a Great Depression saying that meant President Hoover had emptied your pockets and you might as well turn them inside out. A Recession/Depression Quilt might have some possibilities for the Challenge this year. Remember the famous Depression quilt called "Prosperity is Just Around the Corner" by Fannie Shaw? It's in The Twentieth Century's Best American Quilts, and its 30 blocks show people peeking around the corner to see if Prosperity is really coming. Maybe you are the one to immortalize the troubling times we have today--with your Challenge quilt.

Marty Frolli was making some pot holders in her Friday Workshop, and of course we all had to see the pattern. For those who know how to make them, remember that they have four little pockets. Your Challenge quilt could be as large as one of these potholders, or other potholders that have pockets for your fingers.

I like small blocks, and ran across some little maple leaf blocks I had begun making some years ago--from 1" squares. Maple leaf blocks are quite pretty when they're so small. I'm wondering if I can build a Challenge quilt around them. Many block patterns might be adaptable to the 1" size. Think about it.

Refiguring my idea of a Challenge quilt made up of six 1" blocks, I really do come out with 10" around the outside. That gives room for a tiny pocket to be sewed on.

TAKE A MONTH OFF!!

December is for families, friends, and frenzy. Let the Challenge rest for awhile and enjoy all the quirks and foibles of your friends and families, even the disapproving mother-in-law and your sister who can't cook or wash a dish either.

WHATEVER YOUR HOLIDAY-- HANUKKAH, CHRISTMAS, KWANZAA, SOLSTICE or NEW YEAR'S, PEACE AND CONTENTMENT TO YOU AND YOURS.

Block of the Month for January

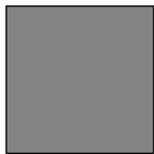

SNOW CRYSTALS

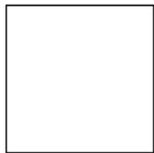

Block of the Month - January 2010

January brings snowflakes falling gently and ice crystals forming on window panes... oh, who are we kidding, in Santa Barbara?! Well, the next best thing then is to imagine what it'd be like and go to our stash to make our own. The seventh installment in our "Quilted Calendar" Block of the Month is an imaginary snowflake block. Since all snowflakes are unique, you get to choose the shade of blue - just imagine what the wall will look like at the next Guild meeting! But don't forget to make a spare for your own Quilted Calendar.

FABRIC:

BLUE -
Cut five 3 1/2" squares (A & C)
Cut eight 2" squares (D)
Cut one 2" x 9" strip (G)
Cut one 2" x 18" strip (G)

WHITE -
Cut eight 2" squares (B)
Cut four 2" x 3 1/2" rectangles (E)
Cut two 2" x 9" strips (F)
Cut two 2" x 18" strips (F)

ASSEMBLY:

With the 9" (F) & (G) strips, sew the (F-G-F) section together as indicated. Press seams inward to the blue. Subcut into four 2" units.

Repeat with the 18" strips, sewing the (F-F-G) section together as indicated. Press seams outward. Subcut into eight 2" units.

Make four of the nine patch units following the diagram.

Create the (B-C) units by drawing diagonal lines on wrong side of each (B) square. Place one (B) square on corner of one (C) square, aligning the outer edges and with diagonal line pointing in toward the edge center, sew on the line. Trim to 1/4" and press open. Repeat with second (B) square placed on adjoining corner of (C) - be sure to check placement of diagonal line (it should intersect first seam). Make four (B-C) units.

Create (D-E) units similar to the (B-C) units but drawing diagonal lines on wrong side of each (D) square. Place one (D) square on end of (E) rectangle, aligning outer edges and with diagonal line pointing in toward the edge center, sew on the line. Trim to 1/4" and press open. Repeat with second (D) square placed on opposite side of (E) checking for placement of diagonal line. Make four (D-E) units.

Join (B-C) and (D-E) units as indicated. With remaining (A) square complete the block as indicated. Block should measure 12 1/2" square.

Enjoy! - Naomi & Debbie
