Challenge Night is Here!

Our March meeting is devoted to the Challenge Quilts. We didn't know so many of you were experts at thinking "outside the box". This challenge will wow you with variety, creativity, invention and fun. Please be sure to come and bring a friend. Guests will be free on Challenge Night.

The Jolly J's want to thank everyone who made a quilt for the challenge and to congratulate you on your lively minds and wonderful workmanship. We didn't know there were so many ways to approach this challenge!

April Fools With Playful Pieces Pockets and Postage Stamps

We are VERY excited to tell you that Coastal Quilters Guild of Santa Barbara and Goleta is once again partnering with one of our generous and supportive vendor-members, Grant House Sewing Machines, for a one-time 1st Thursday presentation of this year's Quilt Challenge entries on April Fool's Day, Thursday April 1, 2010 at 128-B E. Canon Perdido Street in Santa Barbara, from 5:00pm to 8:00pm.

Marvel at how members of Coastal Quilters Guild of Santa Barbara and Goleta individually interpreted and responded to our Guild's annual quilting challenge, featuring originally designed and constructed fiber art. This year's theme, "Playful Pieces: Pockets and Postage Stamps", stimulates the imagination with an exciting demonstration of creativity. Guild members will be available to answer questions about the artwork, as well as about our large non-profit group.

For additional information about the Challenge and our Guild, please visit our website: <http://www.coastalquilters.org>

Information about all 1st Thursday events and a downloadable map is available from the Santa Barbara Downtown Organization's website: <http://www.santabarbaradowntown.com>

Calling all Art Quilters!

Submit your work to be shared at our Art Quilt Celebration!

The May 13th meeting of Coastal Quilters will be a celebration of the Art Quilt and the Art quilters in our guild. When Ranell Hansen and I were asked to do the May program, we really wanted to extend the showing of OUR art quilts to showing the work of ALL the art quilters in the guild so we came up with idea of displaying a mini art quilt gallery for that night. Whether you have made one art quilt or hundreds we invite you to submit work for the May "Coastal Quilters Art Gallery" and to join us in this celebration. (It is a bit like a more formalized show and tell!)

EVERY PERSON WHO SUBMITS A QUILT WILL HAVE ONE HUNG. But we invite you to submit more than one work for consideration.

As I explained last month, the show will be juried. This is not jurying in the sense of picking the best of the best but in the sense that we want to hang a group of quilts that form a cohesive show, given that the number we can hang is limited by space. This is pretty standard in both the art world and in the art quilt world. Jurying a show is an art in itself and we are fortunate to have Andi Perejda willing to come back to do this for us. Please do not be intimidated by the word "jurying"- maybe "picking" would more accurately describe what will be done. There will not be judgment nor feedback from Andi- just the selection of a group of quilts that express the wonderful creative talents of the Coastal Quilters who love to create art quilts!

Quilts will be accepted at the Thursday, April 8, 2010, General Meeting & on Saturday, May 1, 2010, from 9am to 1pm at 6207 Covington Drive, Goleta, CA.

Quilts should be no wider than 24 inches! Please prepare your quilt for hanging and include a dowel or wooden slat cut to width of quilt minus 1/2 inch. Please direct any questions to Cathe Hedrick at chedrick@housing.ucsb.edu.

The Submission Form is available online at www.coastalquilters.org and at the meetings.

From the Library: New Books and DVDs!

Here are but a few of the recent additions to the Guild Library—several related to our Guild speakers. Thanks to all for your donations to both the collection and our summer Book Sale.

- Basting and Quilting on an Old Fashioned Frame (DVD-Cunningham) Speaker “Joe the Quilter” advocates a frame for basting all quilts both hand- and machine-quilted.
- The Painted Quilt (Kemshall) Gorgeous photos illustrate paint and print techniques, as well as quilting and embellishments.
- Freddy & Gwen Collaborate Again (speaker Freddie Moran with Gwen Marston) If you love intense color, you’ll love this book. But, even if red is not your idea of a neutral, you’ll find excellent directions for great patterns.
- Hand-Appliqued Quilts (speaker Tonye Phillips) “Whimsical designs and simple techniques.”
- Paradise Stitched Sylvia Phippen pairs sashiko patterns with floral and tropical appliques.
- The Quilting Arts Books Patricia Bolton edits a collection of articles from her magazine on a range of art quilt techniques.
- Blended Borders Pamela Mostek “blends” large scale borders by overlapping motifs into her quilt centers.
- Design Explorations for the Creative Quilter Katie Pasquini offers color and design principles plus eye candy for art quilters.
- Miniatures in Minutes Terrie Sandlin’s fold-and-sew paper-piecing patterns let you make teeny quilts or embellishments.
- Hand Piecing with Jinny Beyer - no machine needed.

Guild Members Show Their Wearable Art

On March 5th, the Carpinteria Senior Citizens organization will host a fashion show headed by Nola Ferguson. Evelyn Gorrindo and Joann Conklin, as well as three of the Carpinteria ladies, will be modeling their latest wearable fashions. This is the second year Coastal Quilters Guild members have organized a fashion show for the seniors. It seems the men enjoy seeing the models as much as their wives do! Jean MacMillan will narrate the show.

The fashion show will be repeated for another Carpinteria civic group on May 1st. We invite other Coastal Quilters to find organizations that would enjoy a program of wearable art, or a mini quilt show, and spread our love of quilting to others. Many organizations like to have special programs but cannot finance them. We can help!

From Darilyn's Desk

Our guild has much to offer each and every member, and every member has something to offer the Guild. Whether you are a brand new member or a long-time member, I urge you share your time and talents with your Guild. The old adage "many hands make light work" is so true!

Volunteering

As we fill our leadership positions for the coming year, I would like each of you to consider how you can make the guild even better. When was the last time you volunteered for a board or committee position? If you haven't served in two or more years, I ask you to consider serving again. If you are a new member, it's a great way to meet others and learn about the Guild. If you have served recently, thank you!

Contact me or Edalee Keehn (Parliamentarian) if you are interested in serving during the 2010-2011 term.

Note: We're still waiting for someone to offer to be President. Is that person you?

Participating

You may think that you couldn't possibly serve as president or even as a board or committee member, and that's fine. You can still maximize your membership by supporting those that do volunteer by participating in the many events they plan.

Are you actively participating in the following?

- Attending general meetings
- Making a block (or two) each month for Block of the Month
- Entering the yearly Guild Challenge
- Submitting entries for the September guild quilt show
- Attending Workshops and Open Sews
- Donating quilts to Community Quilts
- Adding to and taking from the Treasure Table
- Visiting a board meeting or a New Member Coffee
- Voicing your opinions and ideas

Get involved. Remember, our Guild is only as strong as our membership participation!

Let's go sew!

March 20th is National Quilting Day!

Take a moment to really appreciate your passion. Pull out those heirloom quilts and marvel at the workmanship. Finish a project. Begin a new project. Try a new technique. Sew with a friend or grandchild. Pile all your stash in the middle of the front room floor and feast your eyes on the colors, textures and variety. If none of the above sounds good, you can always go fabric shopping!

Quilt Show News

The other day I was shopping at Chaucer's for some books for my school. As I checked out, I decided to ask the clerk about the possibility of displaying a quilt in the window next September before our show. The young man thought that would be great. It turned out that he was the event coordinator for the store, and asked if we might be interested in displaying quilts inside the store as well. That's how easy it is to achieve our goal of "Blanketing the town with quilts." If you frequent an appropriate shop or gallery, please do not be shy about asking if we can display quilts there. The worst they can say is "no" – and it could likely turn into a great opportunity to promote our show.

Our last Quilt Show Planning meeting was on February 13th in Carpinteria. At this meeting, we discussed the need for lots of member entries into the show. It looks like we will need between 200-300 quilts for the show, depending on the size. It would be wonderful to represent most, if not all, of our members at this "Member's Showcase." So please, get your entry ready!

At our last guild meeting, Susan West volunteered to be our Featured Artist Coordinator. Thank you for coming forward, Susan. And thanks also to the other people who volunteered for this position after I talked to Susan. We are still need to fill a few key positions, notably:

Hanging – to organize the physical hanging and display of quilts and coordinate volunteers

It occurred to me after writing this up for last month's meeting, that this position could be split into two distinct functions. One part is the physical hanging of the quilts on September 24th – and would require a small group of people (satellite?) rather than a single person. The second, and preliminary part, is organizing the requirements for hanging each quilt. This means making sure we have the right length of rods based on the dimension information turned in on the applications. In some cases, we may need to be a bit creative with how we hang the quilts – and we have some ideas about this. Please let me know if either of these jobs would work for you.

Home Dec Coordinator – receive and organize entry forms for this category and coordinate the display of items at the quilt show.

Our next Quilt Show Planning meeting will be held at 10:00 a.m. on March 13th. If you are interested in attending, please contact me for directions.

Celebrating the Success of Our Members

Creativity abounds at Becoming Art at the Seams: A Juried Exhibition of Art and Contemporary Quilts at the Museum of Ventura County. Opening with a free public reception from 6 to 8 p.m. on Friday, March 12, the exhibit continues through June 20.

The 38 art quilts, representing the talents of 28 quilt artists from Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and Ventura counties display a wide variety of techniques, including sun transfers, digital, sun printed or painted textiles, hand and machine stitching, beading, appliqués, and unexpected patterns and subjects.

Of the 28 artists represented in this exhibit, ELEVEN are members of Coastal Quilters Guild: Linda Cassirer, Susan Conn Italo, Isabel Downs, Ranell Hansen, Patty Latourell, Pat Masterson, Lorna Morck, Kristin Otte, Judy Rys, Jeanne Surber and Susan West. We congratulate ALL of them on their wonderful work!

Museum of Ventura County is located at 89 S. California Street in Ventura. Museum hours: Tuesday through Sunday, 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. First Fridays: Usually open until 8:00 pm. Admission is FREE (except some exhibits). FREE PARKING: Santa Clara Street Structure

GOT STASH?

Why wait until December to clean out your closets? If you have projects that no longer appeal to you, pass them along via the Treasure Table. Whether you have "orphan blocks", stack of blocks, or unfinished tops, put them in a baggie and they will become "treasure" for another quilter. Someone with a fresh eye will love the colors or design, or use the partially completed top to practice their quilting, or finish the project and donate it to community quilts. (Note: NO Treasure Table in March. This leaves you plenty of time to clean out for the April meeting!)

Always a fun and productive weekend. It's a great opportunity to finish projects or start something new. We usually have anywhere from 30 to 45 people at the retreat so it's always fun to see what people are working on. BASKET TRIM -

Cut each (A) and (B) square diagonally into quarters. Using five (A) triangles and all four (B) triangles, assemble Basket Trim unit as shown. Center and trim this unit to 12 1/2". (Tool tip: the Fons & Porter "Triangle Trimmers" make great work of trimming points off helping with aligning pieces for sewing.) Attach trim unit to basket bottom.

BASKET TOP -

Draw diagonal lines on the wrong side of each (E), (I) and (L) square. This section is worked outward in layers. Layout the pieces as they are to be assembled to help visualize this section.

For the second layer, sew (G) rectangle to top edge of (E-F) unit. Sew (H) rectangles to each side of (E-F-G) unit, press open. Position both (I) squares on upper corners of (G-H) edge, right sides together and stitch on diagonal line. Trim 1/4" away from stitching line, press open.

For last layer, sew (J) rectangle to top edge of (I-G-I). Sew (K) rectangles to each side of (H-I) edges. Position both (L) squares on upper corners of (K-I-J) edge, right sides together and stitch on diagonal line. Trim 1/4" away from stitching line, press open.

Complete block by attaching basket top to bottom, block should measure 12 1/2" square.

Enjoy! - Naomi & Debbie
