Stepping into Creativity

Jake Finch comes to us from Simi Valley. She is a field editor for American Quilt Magazine and writes for many other national quilt magazines. She states: "Many quilters are happy following a pattern and duplicating a quilt. Others are fearless when it comes to deviating from a pattern and making a design their own." What is it they have that other quilters don't? Take a walk down the path of creativity and innovation with Jake and become inspired to quilt and create out of your comfort zone. Creativity is not a "talent" some of us have and others don't; it's a gift we are all given and a muscle to be exercised. Learn how small changes in how you handle a project can lead to big impacts and pick up some tips to keep the creative river flowing.

Jake began teaching in 2000 and found that she loves working with anyone wanting to learn and create. Her teaching style is comfortable, informative, nurturing and often a little silly. It's a pleasure for her to watch someone realize a new skill and pride of accomplishment. Her workshop will be Saturday, June 12th, 9-3:30. You will be taught innovative techniques from her book Fast, Fun and Easy Book Covers. These techniques can be adapted to many projects. You can finish the project (YEAH!) as the techniques will be applied to a 3-ring binder cover. Put all those neat ideas from Marty's classes, pictures of your quilts, recipes, etc in this professional looking binder and get a feeling of joy as you use it. Workshop $35, Book $10. There are still openings so you can e-mail Patti Six at RPSix@aol.com or phone her at 569-9968 to sign up and get your supply list. Chairs are low in the workshop room, bring a pillow to sit on if you like.

Coming in July: New Member's Picnic

Please join us in our time honored tradition of saying "welcome" to all of our new members at our annual New Member Picnic. If you joined our guild between July 1, 2009 and June 30, 2010, you are considered a "new" member. What does this mean? It means your guild would like to invite you to attend its annual picnic as a guest. You don't have to do or bring anything. All you need to do is show up! So come enjoy a delicious meal topped off with fabulous desserts and lots of chocolate provided by the rest of the membership.

Our theme for this year's picnic is Alice meets the Mad Hatter in Quiltland. We encourage everyone to wear a hat. Old, new, homemade, embellished – the madder, the better! Besides the fact that we need protection from the sun, hats are fun to wear and fun to look at. So let your creativity run wild! Bring your camera too. Our webmaster, Bonnie Barber, is offering a prize for the best picture of the picnic that is submitted to her for our website: www.coastalquilters.org.

In addition to your hats and cameras, ongoing members whose last name starts with the following letters need to bring:

- A-E: bring dessert
- F-R: bring main dish
- S-Z: bring a hearty salad

Plates, utensils, coffee and water are provided.

It will be a busy meeting even though there is no speaker scheduled.

The picnic is held outside and begins at 5:30. You will be seated according to your assigned Alice in Wonderland character. Doors will open at 6:30 for the Library book sale. Also at 6:30, Community Quilts will be offering fabric for sale from the huge stash that has developed. To add to the fun, Susan Carty will present her always amusing and entertaining new member "name game" answers. We will wrap up the evening with Show & Tell and a short business meeting.

Blockheads Satellite Group

Congratulations to Guild Member Isabel Downs!

Her beautiful and incredibly embellished quilt, Tidepool Souvenirs - Littoral Memories, has been selected as a semifinalist in the AQS Quilt Show and Contest in Knoxville, TN in July. Winners will be announced just prior to the show.

Only a Quilter

We've all heard the classic line that only a quilter would take yards and yards of material, cut it into little pieces and then sew them back together again. While this statement is true and a little funny to think about, it doesn't even scratch the surface of the things that only a quilter would do.

Only a Quilter would spend more hours sewing several hundreds of buttons on a quilt to embellish it, but wouldn't take five minutes to replace a button on a pair of pants.

Only a Quilter would give the gift of a wedding quilt two months after the birth of the couple's second child.

Only a Quilter would put hundreds of dollars worth of fabric into her fabric stash because she might find a use for it sometime, but wouldn't replace a 50-cent needle on her sewing machine.

Only a Quilter would let three later-arriving patients go ahead of her at the doctor's office because she is on the verge of completing a block.

Only a Quilter would rush to finish a gift quilt. Not so it's done in time for the recipient's birthday, but so it's done in time for Show and Tell.

Only a Quilter would make a special quilt to give to her son, who would then have to attend quilt shows just to see it.

Only a Quilter would use freezer paper in the production of something to keep someone warm.

Only a Quilter has a welcome mat at the door to her home and an "Enter at Your Own Risk" sign on the door of her sewing room.

Only a Quilter invites everyone to see her sewing room, then says, "Don't look at the mess."

Only a Quilter says, "I really don't need another project," then offers to make a quilt for a friend.

Only a Quilter will buy more than she'll ever need of one fabric for her stash, but slightly less than is needed of another fabric to complete a project.

Only a Quilter would give a quilt book to the guild auction then bid on it to get it back.

Only a Quilter would drive 40 miles in a hurricane to attend a quilt show, but call out to have her dinner delivered because it is drizzling.

Only a Quilter's family would put up with, understand and love a quilter.

You will note that there is still no president or parliamentarian listed. All the critical tasks performed by these two positions will be reassigned among the new board until someone steps forward. There is no precedent for this situation. We have never been without a president before and the board is facing a great challenge. I ask that you be understanding and supportive of the board and that you say "yes" when you are asked to help.

The volunteers listed above are hard-working, dedicated, fun and full of great ideas. They are a fabulous group to work with! Now would be the perfect time for you to consider filling one of the vacancies. The open positions can be filled at any time, so – what are you waiting for?

Quilt Show News

Summer is here and plans are accelerating for our September quilt show. This will be a busy summer – and an even busier September as we move into full preparation mode. While finishing your quilt, please consider what you can do to help the “cause.” And watch for the following at our general meetings:

- Volunteer sign-ups will begin in June – see the table as you come in, and read the related article in this newsletter
- Pre-sale tickets will be available beginning in June. Advance tickets are $8 – a $2 savings off of the door price. Please convince your friends and family to purchase early.
- If you need to have your quilt photographed for the entry form, Rosana Swing will be providing this service before the June and July meetings. Plan to arrive at least ½ hour before the beginning of the meeting.
- Our new poster, designed by Jeanne Surber and Leslie Dodge, will be “unveiled” at the June meeting!

For those who may be new to our guild, I want to emphasize that our bi-ennial quilt show is a “member’s showcase.” This means that you must be a member to enter a quilt (so send in your renewal) and only members’ quilts are displayed. We do not “compete” with professional quilters from around the country (although we have a few “world class” quilters among us) and we want to have a full representation from our membership. It would be nice to have a quilt from each of our members! Please don’t feel shy or intimidated about entering your quilt – think of it as a giant “Show & Tell” where you can bring your family and friends.

Our Public Relations team is moving into high gear – we’re even on Facebook! If you are a member of Facebook, search for Santa-Barbara-Harvest-of-Colors-Quilt-Show-September-25-26-2010 – and become a fan. The link will be on our website sometime soon.

If you will be attending any quilt shows or visiting distant quilt shops within the next couple of months, please contact Rosana Swing to see if she needs help with delivering bookmarks.

I look forward to working with all of you over the next few months to create a wonderful show.

Karen Pickford, Quilt Show Chairperson
kjpickford@cox.net

Calling all 2009 & 2010 Challenge Quilts

The Challenge Quilts from 2009 (Travel Posters) and 2010 (Postage Stamps and Pockets) will both be displayed at our September show. If you would like to have your quilt included, please complete an entry form – but write “Challenge” in large letters across the top. Be sure to include a photo. The quilts will be handled in the same way as quilts entered for the show, except that they cannot be part of the judged quilts. If you would like to enter your Challenge Quilt for judging, it will be included in the main part of the show, not the Challenge display. You can include the Challenge detail in your description if you wish.

Volunteers for the Quilt Show

Saturday, September 25 and Sunday, September 26 are red letter days. Mark them on your calendar, for these are the days of our Members Showcase Quilt Show at Earl Warren Showgrounds. Save these days so you can fully enjoy the show. Plan trips, parties, weddings, birthdays and anniversaries for some other weekend! Allow yourself plenty of time to wallow in the joys of the show.

Sign-ups for volunteers at the Quilt Show start at the June Guild meeting. You may have been thinking about what job(s) you’d like to do for the show. Let me encourage you to sign up soon, as some of the plum jobs will be snapped up quickly. The categories for volunteering are admissions, white glove, security, featured artist, and security. Job descriptions will be available at the sign-up table.

If you would like to work before and/or after the show, we also need volunteers for setting up the show on Friday and taking down the quilts at the end of the show on Sunday.

If you are new to the Guild, this is a great opportunity to get to know other Guild members and give back to the Guild. No experience is necessary! So, please see us at the sign-up table near the Guild meeting entrance.

For more information, please email Diane Eardley at eardley@lifesci.ucsb.edu

Blessed Are the Quilters:

- For they are piecemakers.
- For they make ends meet.
- For they know how to cut corners.
- For they keep you in stitches.
- For they make great comforters.
- For they patch things up.
- For they pick up the pieces.
- For they save you energy.
- For they put color in your life.
- For they warm our hearts and souls.
- For they have the gift of love.

Block of the Month for July

SCRAP INSANITY

Introducing the Block of the Month for 2010-2011

Block of the Month 2010-2011 is all about scraps. Big scraps, little scraps, cute scraps, plain scraps, fancy scraps, even ugly scraps. We are going to help you use up those scraps. Many of the blocks we have chosen this year will form secondary patterns as they are assembled.

There are only two rules for this BOM series.

1. The background fabrics will vary from month to month between white, cream, and black. For example: if a block calls for white background, then all the background pieces must be white (or white on white prints). They may be the same fabric or different fabrics as long as they match the color specified in the instructions.
2. The scrap fabrics within each block must be different. There shouldn't be any two pieces in your completed block that match. If the block has 8 pieces that are lights, mediums or darks, you will use 8 different fabrics.

FLOCK

The first installment of Scrap Insanity is Flock. This is a very simple block of half square triangles (HST).

FABRIC:

Background: white. Cut 2 squares 7" and 8 squares 4".

Scraps: you will need 10 different fabrics. This block will look best using a variety of light, medium, and dark fabrics. Cut 2 squares 7" and 8 squares 4".

ASSEMBLY:

Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of all the background pieces.

Match a background piece and a scrap with right sides together. Stitch  $\frac{1}{4}$ " from both sides of the diagonal line. Cut apart on the drawn line. Press seams toward the scrap. Trim to  $3\frac{1}{2}$ " and  $6\frac{1}{2}$ ".

Lay out the HST units as shown in the diagram and complete your block. Block should measure  $12\frac{1}{2}$ " square.

Note: If you follow this method, you will be able to make two blocks. Or, save the left over HST units for a future Block of the Month.

Problems with the block? We are here to help.

Cathe, Darilyn, & Kathy

SPECIAL REQUEST FOR QUILTS

FROM THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

The California Department of Veterans Affairs will dedicate the new Veterans Affairs residential care center in a ceremony on Flag Day – June 14, 2010. The new center, located on the grounds of the Federal Building across from the V.A. Cemetery in West Los Angeles, will have over 300 beds designated for assisted living, skilled nursing care, and Alzheimer care. Quilts for both bed and wheelchair/lap use are needed (a good size is 65 x 80 inches). The initial request is for 20 to 40 quilts to place in welcome bags to be given to veterans at the time of their admission to the program to be delivered by June 14.

Also, the VA would like to have commitments from organizations willing to help to keep an on-going supply of quilts for the veterans.

At the June 14 ceremony, which is open to the public, the California Home of the Brave Quilt Project's Fallen Heroes Quilt, which contains the names of all of California's losses in Operation Enduring Freedom and Operation Iraqi Freedom, will be displayed.

Contact: Jeanne Bonfilio, Public Information Officer II, Veterans Housing for the Greater Los Angeles and Ventura Counties. JEANNE.BONFILIO@CDVA.CA.GOV or 818/742-1761.

Let's show the VA how quiltmakers respond to make a better America.
