August Speaker: Beth Hawkins

Our August Speaker, Beth Hawkins, comes to us from Tucson, Arizona. With Liz Hawkins, her sister-in-law, she is part of the twosome who create "LizzieBcre8tive" patterns, lectures and workshops.

B - (Beth) is a quilter extraordinaire! Give her a design; an array of fabrics, click the heels three times and a LizzieB quilt is born! Cre8ive - Together Liz and Beth have found their niche in the quilting world. They strive for uniqueness in their designs. They look for inspiration in the things that they love and find comfort in (jazz music and umm, chocolate?). Traditional is not their focus. Whimsical is.

They have published 51 patterns including A Rose Tinted Life.

Her lecture will be about "WHO IS LIZZIE B?"

- a. Who we are
- b. How the pattern company was born
- c. Trunk show of quilts
- d. Design inspirations
- e. Where do ideas come from, how do they become patterns/quilts?

Her workshop will be the wonderful Fleur Rug. Brighten any room with a big cozy chenille flower like the ones in the Rose Tinted Life pattern shown above. Contact Patti Six at RPSix@aol.com or 569-9968 to sign up for the $35 workshop on August 13th.

Harvest of Colors: Volunteers Needed!

Hi, The Fall Quilt show is getting closer. Please look at your calendars and see if you can help out. We still need volunteers for selling opportunity tickets, helping community quilts, assisting the featured artist, volunteers to sell admission tickets, a few for security, and white gloves for Sunday Morning. Contact Wanda Livernois 961-2735, or livernois@hotmail.com.

Are you missing a serving utensil after the New Member Picnic? There were just a few left, and they will be available at the August meeting.

Thank you to everyone who arrived wearing creative hats and welcomed New Members with Mad Hatter spirit - and also to those who brought their own re-usable plates & utensils in the interest of less waste!

Gwen Wagy, Blockheads

Time MARCHes on: the "Challenge"

By now many of us have either completed our entries for September's Harvest of Colors Show or are nearly done. Before you pick up a UFO or dig into your stash pondering what quilt project to work on next, keep a time slot open because the March 2011 Challenge will be announced at August's meeting! Past "Challenges" have been sponsored by an individual or two. This year the Sew It All's satellite group will host. We feel that our defining criteria will inspire wide participation for a fun and imaginative show on Challenge Night.

New members may wonder what the "Challenge" is. For many years it has been an annual tradition to dedicate one of our monthly meetings to exhibit the talents of our members in the stimulating format of a challenge. A theme with certain parameters is presented that challenges members to adhere to the "rules" while creating their entry. The variety of techniques and clever interpretations revealed in the Show make this evening, when guests are invited for free, very popular. Challenge entry signage is anonymous. All attending members receive a ballot to choose their favorites. The votes are tallied during the meeting. Quilters identities are revealed when they parade before us, entry in hand, concluding with the awards presentation. Two public displays follow. The first venue is usually at one of our dedicated local quilting resources where the Challenge entries are shown for the next month, and returned at the following guild meeting. Also the biannual Harvest of Colors hangs the last two years of Challenges as a special attraction at the show.

Subsequent guild newsletters will list the guidelines. The Sew It All's will be available at meetings to answer any questions. Seven months from now your unique inspirations will kick off another Coastal Quilters Challenge. Until then, happy quilting!

Quilt Show News

We're nearing the end of our journey – the Quilt Show is just around the corner! The Quilt Show committee has been working hard to ensure that we have a fabulous show this year, but they can't do it alone. Remember that this is our only major fund raiser this year, and the proceeds support Guild activities over the course of the next two years. At this stage all of the pieces are falling into place, but we still need Quilt Entries, Volunteers, and Attendees.

Quilt Entries

The Entry form for all show items (quilts, wearables, home décor, and Challenge quilts) is due August 12th – our next Guild meeting. As of our last planning meeting, there were only 30+ entries! Hopefully, like me, you will be turning in your forms and photos at the last minute. This is a "Member's Showcase" and we want entries from as many members as possible. It doesn't have to be your latest creation (if you can't get it done in time) – the main rule is that it has not been in a previous Harvest of Colors show.

Volunteers

The volunteer sign-up sheets will be available at the next two Guild meetings and we encourage you to sign up for more than one shift, if possible. Boutique participants have a separate sign-up sheet, and this does not count toward your free admission to the show. There are also many opportunities to help that are not listed on the sign-up sheets. We need people to set up displays around town, hang posters, deliver posters and bookmarks to distant quilt shops (especially north county and SLO county) and a variety of other things. Please email me if you can help!

Attendees

Last, but certainly not least, we need people to come to our show. Please spread the word at every available opportunity. Now is the time for people to begin marking their calendars. And so that they don't change their minds at the last minute and not show up, we are encouraging people to buy tickets in advance, and save $2. Collect money from your friends and purchase their tickets for them at the next two Guild meetings (August and September). And if your budget allows, please consider purchasing your own ticket in advance, even if you are volunteering to help with the show. Remember, the proceeds help the Guild bring you all of the fun activities and amazing speakers we enjoy throughout the year.

Once again, I'd like to thank my committee for doing a spectacular job of pulling this show together. Now, I've got to get back to finishing my quilts for the show!

Karen Pickford, 2010 Quilt Show Chairperson
kjpickford@cox.net, 967-9588

Future Programs

SEPTEMBER

Our very own guild member, Norah McMeeking will be the speaker for this evening. Get ready for her powerpoint presentation and a trunk show of her beautiful quilts. Bring your cameras and friends. There will be no workshop this month.

www.bellabellaquilts.com

OCTOBER

Nancy Ota, from San Clemente, will present us with a Trunk Show, How's and Why's of Quilting. Her Sashiko workshop is scheduled for October 15, 2010. Learn to hand embroider the beautiful stitching patterns used in Japan. You will begin by stitching on a small traced pattern which is provided. Then you can select the provided six other patterns or create something on your own. An optional kit for $20 will provide premarked fabric, thread and a pattern. It is available for viewing at the Workshop Sign-up table.

NOVEMBER

Tonye Belinda Phillips, from Sisters, Oregon, will present a lecture A Hint of Whimsy or Tonye's Applique Trip. Her workshop is: Applique Potluck, Needle turn appliqué. Her shapes are whimsical and playful. She likes to use unexpected fabrics. Sounds like fun!

Suzy Pelovsky, Speaker Liaison

Around the Block: With "The Sew Whats"

A guild satellite group calling themselves "The Sew Whats" formed in the mid 1990's, mostly from members attending one of Marty Frolli's adult education classes in Santa Barbara. Many of the students would go for coffee after class at Howard Johnson's, and the group formed as a result of those friendly coffee klatches. Over the years the group has steadily maintained a membership of 10 to 15 members.

While the group does not have a specific joint interest or focus, they will gather up their energy and work on a specific project, then relax and recuperate with each member working at their own pace. This year they have made pillowcases and quilts for the Guild's community projects and currently are working on table runners to be sold through the gift boutique at our September quilt show, with all proceeds being donated to the Guild. And when you admire the beautifully crafted fabric prize ribbons awarded to the winning quilts at the 2010 show, you can thank group member Joann Conklin for her wonderful talents!

The Sew Whats have always been active participants in the Guild when help was needed. Many of its members have held Board positions, including Betty Kelley and Diane Eardley serving as Guild Presidents, as well as committee leadership roles, such as our current 2010 Quilt Show Chairperson, Karen Pickford.

Last year the group assisted co-chairs Jean MacMillan and Judith Nybakken with details for the Challenge night program "Pockets and Postage Stamps", as well as the April 1st presentation of challenge quilts at the "First Thursday" showing at Grant House Sewing Machines in Santa Barbara. Member Jean MacMillan quipped "In January we tried to make everyone healthy and thin with our lighter Guild meeting refreshments, but it went over like a bomb – it caused later groups to make even MORE good treats for their refreshments, much to everyone's delight!"

The Sew Whats have made THREE guild opportunity quilts, under the direction of Karen Pickford and Joann Conklin, and for many years volunteered their time selling tickets at various venues where the opportunity quilts were displayed. Their most recent opportunity quilt creation was the 2008 "Tuscan Gold" (who can forget those beautiful feathered designs quilted into the alternate blocks?). Another was the 2002 "Freedom" quilt with red, white and blue stars and stripes.

Over the past year the group has presented two wearable art shows in Carpinteria, chaired by Nola Ferguson, and they are planning another showing in Santa Barbara.

When asked what she finds special about her satellite group, Jean MacMillan said: "Our real blessing has been the friendship and fellowship we have shared with one another over the years. Whether celebrating or recuperating, filled with energy or overwhelmed by circumstance, joyful or sad, we have been there for each other like patches in a giant quilt. And THAT is priceless!"

The Rambling Rose

This feature in our newsletter is a venue to inform Guild members a bit more about our individual satellite groups and what activities they are involved in. For example: Sharing group challenges or exchange ideas, interesting places they've been to or "Road Trips" they've taken, or worthwhile causes they contribute to. Each column features a different satellite group, and a digital photo or two may be included if space permits. All satellite groups interested in sharing their experiences are encouraged to contact the column's roving reporter, Kathy "the Rambling" Rose, by email at katrose@cox.net with details and digital photos. Please reference "Around the Block."

Fabric strips needed for Education Booth at Quilt Show

We are looking for donations for the upcoming Quilt Show in September. At the Show, we will provide fabric strips so children and adults may design a quilt block that will be a finished size 9 ½. It will then be sewn and put on a display "hall of fame" wall during the show. After the show the blocks will be assembled into twin quilts that will be auctioned off at our annual Live Auction in August of 2011. The proceeds from those quilts will be donated to a charity.

We would appreciate:

1. Strips pre cut to 2 ½" x 4 ½" size from any BRIGHT COLOR scraps you have, i.e. polka dots, stripes, children's bright prints, batiks, etc. Please package them in bundles of the same print with a safety pin. If you do not have time to cut them into this size just bring your BRIGHT SCRAPS.
2. White and Black fabric prints cut into 2"x11" strips or 2"x44" strips will be especially appreciated. (Small motifs if possible)
3. 10 inch squares of batting any kind!
4. Thread of any color.

If you have any questions please feel free to email Cathe Hedrick chedrick@housing.ucsb.edu or Suzu Pelovsky spelovsky@hotmail.com

We will have a box set up for your donations under the check in table as you enter the General Meeting August.

Thanks for your help!

Harvest of Colors

Advertising in the Show Program

This year the program for the Harvest of Colors Quilt Show will include space for advertising or other announcements. Over 1000 quilters and their families, from all over southern California, attend our biennial show. Advertising in our program is a wonderful opportunity to promote your business, service, or restaurant to these visitors and residents. We are offering this opportunity to a limited audience, including our show Vendors, Members of CQG and businesses associated with our Guild. Advertising revenues will be used to offset the cost of printing the program as well as other expenses associated with the show.

The pricing for advertising will be as follows:

- Quarter page (5" x 2" or 2 1/2" x 4") or business card - $50
- Half page (5" x 4") - $75
- Full page (5" x 8") - $125
- Outside Back cover (5" x 8") - $150

The program will be in booklet format (5 1/2" x 8 1/2") and will be printed in black and white. We expect to distribute at least 1000 programs during the course of the show on Saturday and Sunday, September 25 and 26, 2010. In addition to the program, your advertisement will be included in the Sponsor section of the quilt show DVD that will be available at the show and for pre-sale. Posters listing the sponsors/advertisers will also be displayed at the entrances to the show.

All advertising payments and camera-ready artwork are due by September 1, 2010. Please submit as follows:

» Advertising artwork (jpg format preferred):

email to mballard0103@gmail.com
