September Meeting: Mickey Depre from Oak Lawn, Illinois

"WARNING: All attendees of my lectures must come prepared to laugh, share, learn, ...and above all enjoy," says Mickey. So be sure not to miss this presenter and even invite a friend. Her presentation, Me, Myself and I, will be followed by a short trunk show covering her progression from a traditional quilter to the present.

Mickey is a quilt artist, teacher, lecturer, and author. Her work is a visual parade of color and textures, incorporating interesting shapes, mixing hand dyed fabrics with print, and adding a little whimsy and humor. You can't look at her work without feeling inspired and smiling

She has given one-woman exhibits in New Jersey and Virginia and has won many awards in Pennsylvania, Vermont, Indiana, at Road to California, and IQA in Houston, as well as being published in Quilters Newsletter Magazine, American Quilter, IQA Journal, and Miniature Quilts. Her publication is entitled Garden Whimsy Applique. For more information, visit her website at www.mdquilts.com.

Friday's Workshop: Charm Pack Wildflowers

Charm Packs...those delightful sets of five-inch squares of fabric. Mickey has designed a pattern that allows you to put them into a "charming" little wall quilt. You could make nine of these little quilts for a unique full-size sampler quilt. Just add some small amounts of an additional background fabric and vine/leaf fabric and you're done. When it comes to the appliqué you can use needle turn, fuse, or zigzag machine appliqué. She will have demos/tips for all three methods to help you decide.

Saturday Workshop: Machine Quilting: Free Motion 101

A workshop for quilters who are ready to "dive into" the world of free-motion machine quilting. Learn the basics of thread, needles, and "tricks of the trade". Then apply this knowledge to 12 simple (but effective!) free-motion machine quilting patterns.

To inquire about workshops, contact: carol@carolfayquilts.com if you haven't signed up at the meeting. Supply lists are available for download on the guild website.

Community Quilts

Since Community Quilts was started, 1,000 kits have been passed out. Thanks to your generosity in completing those, as well as the many items you've made from your own stash, there are countless happy recipients in our community. So, now we'll begin a new numbering sequence, but in our minds we'll know that #1 means 1001.

The One Million Pillowcase Challenge is still in effect, so we'll be making those this year. For a head start on the pattern, try www.allpeoplequilt.com for a simple pattern that makes a pair. In addition, our goal is to make 200 placemats for donation to Food From The Heart. Those will be presented in February. They have requested that we place a heart somewhere on the front of the placemat. The hearts will be available for you to fuse and sew onto your placemat(s) at the next meeting. We'll have kits of sets of six placemats, Christmas stockings, bags, and pillowcases for you to make. You'll see why they're in sets when we next meet.

One other project will be baby quilts for T.A.P.P. That is Teenage Pregnancy and Parenting through the Community Action Commission. More about them at the meeting. Please stop by our table at the September meeting to pick up kits, return items you've finished, and generally get an idea of what's in store for the coming year.

One special event will be a Community Quilts Open Sew on October 22 at Goleta Valley Community Center. We'll be bringing lots of fabric, batting and embellishments for our little projects. It's going to be a party with a guest instructor, so sign up at the meeting. See you soon.

— Edalee Keehn, Barbara MacCallum, Nancy Miller & Carol Hart

RIP Amazon Associates!

Effective July 1, 2011, Amazon.com terminated all contracts with associates, due to a new California law imposing sales tax on all Amazon orders placed by Californians through their associates links. This means that the guild will no longer be receiving a commission percentage on sales generated AFTER that date, however any sales BEFORE that date are still eligible for payment. Once all of the eligible sales have cycled through the payment process, we will let you know how much our affiliation with Amazon actually generated for the guild.

Californians may still place orders directly through Amazon without paying sales tax, as long as there are NO Amazon retail outlets located in California.

From the President's Desk

I am writing this letter from the beautiful little city of Fort Wayne, Indiana. I had the pleasure of traveling to Indiana to celebrate my aunt's 100th birthday yesterday. In the spirit of that celebration, I wish you all good health and long life. I hope I am still quilting when I am 100!

The auction was a wonderful event and an incredible success thanks to the hard work of Cathe Hedrick, Darilyn Kisch and the rest of the auction committee. Speaking as someone whose stash is outgrowing my sewing room, the last thing I needed was MORE fabric, but in support of our wonderful guild, I managed to go home with a box load! A little reorganization and my purchases are happy in their new home. The magician was entertaining, and Dawn and Patrick did a great job with the live auction. This event was another great example of the wonderful people we have in our guild. Thank you all for your support.

We are back to our regular program in September with speaker Mickey Depre followed by both a Friday and Saturday workshop. Check with Carol Fay or Diane Eardley to see if there is room in either workshop if you didn't get a chance to sign up. Terrie Sandelin follows in October and offers a workshop on miniatures. If you haven't had a chance to participate in a workshop, please take advantage of this wonderful part of our guild. Sign up early as the workshops fill up quickly.

I am looking forward to our September meeting as our Community Quilt Quartet will be presenting their plans for the coming year. They will have quilt kits available and will be announcing the charitable organizations that will be the lucky recipients of the guild's handiwork this year.

I'm missing my sewing machine in my travels, but it is giving me time to work on the hand appliqué project that I started in Karen Pickford's July workshop. I don't think hand appliqué is my "gift," but I'm trying and determined to complete that project!

I hope you are all enjoying your summer and have had time to spend a little time with your current quilt project.

Quilt 'til you wilt,
Irelle

What Does Our Board Do?

If you have never served as an officer or board member for the guild, or served on one of our various committees, you may wonder: "Exactly what does our board do and why do we need one?"

The bylaws of the Coastal Quilters Guild, most recently revised in June 2011 and published in your membership directory, outline how the guild must operate and conduct business as a California nonprofit mutual benefit corporation. This document states that the corporation's activities and affairs shall be managed, and all corporate power shall be exercised, by or under the board's direction. All duties to be performed by each of the corporation's officers are outlined in the bylaws, conducting regular meetings to take care of all of the guild's business and financial affairs.

Board membership includes the following offices: president, vice president(s), recording secretary, corresponding secretary, treasurer, and parliamentarian. Board membership also includes the following non-officer positions: programs, speaker liaison, workshop coordinator, public relations coordinator, and membership committee chair. These offices and positions are deemed necessary to perform the duties and steer the direction of the corporation and are elected at each annual meeting of the membership to hold office for a term of one year.

But what ELSE do they do at board meetings?

The president prepares a meeting agenda of items to be discussed or acted upon by the board, often including topics submitted by other board members or individual committee chairs. Regular features include review and approval of the treasurer's report and minutes from the previous meeting, followed by reports from the board committee chairs. Frequently other non-board member committee chairs may present items for discussion or approval or simply for board informational purposes.

What other types of discussion items come up? There can be a wide array of discussion items brought to the meeting, such as the availability of new promotional items, auction and quilt show updates, library acquisitions or sales, quarterly updates on SCCQG (Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds) meetings, fundraising opportunities, website news, membership questions, special requests from other organizations for assistance, and much, much more.

Board meetings are conducted on the third Thursday of each month, presently at Maravilla Senior Living Center at 5486 Calle Real in Santa Barbara at 6:30 pm. All members of the guild are encouraged and welcome to attend, even if just so see what they do. By attending, you will gain a new appreciation for the variety of work that occurs "behind the scenes" on your behalf!

Our Community Quilts Do Make a Difference

The following was received from Sona MacMillan, Co-Chairman of the Duffle Bag Project for Assistance League of Santa Barbara:

"Dear Ladies of the Coastal Quilters Guild:

Although you will receive an official letter of thanks from the Assistance League, I want to express my gratitude and appreciation for the amazingly beautiful quilts you donated to our Fostering Friends Program. As it happens, the league's monthly meeting was held last Monday morning [June 13th] and so we had our own mini "parade of quilts" for our membership, who was rightfully astonished by the beauty and complexity of your work.

Later that afternoon we held our graduation party for 35 foster youth who were or soon will be aging out of Foster Care, accompanied by their case managers. These are great young people and we had a chance to talk with them and learn about their future plans and hopes before presenting them with filled duffle bags.

Your suggestion to let them choose their own quilts was an inspired one! We draped them over chairs and tables so they could more easily make their selections. Not only did they have a great time trying to decide which one each liked best (with many changes of ideas), but it was a wonderful ice-breaker before the dinner, with kids asking friends to help them decide, comparing decisions, and so forth. One young woman, who is a gifted musician, chose the one with the yellow and brown musical instruments motif. Another, who arrived dressed in lavender, immediately zeroed in on one of the quilts in tones of purple, lilac and blues. And the boys were just as enthusiastic as the girls were. All felt very special that you ladies would take the time to make something so beautiful just for them.

So it gives me great pleasure to enclose thank-you notes written by these young people. Please know that your efforts have made a difference in their lives."

Included with the letter were four photographs taken during their event, as well as 21 handwritten notes from the quilt recipients, both girls and boys. All of the notes thanked ALL OF YOU for your efforts in creating the beautiful quilts you created especially for them, using descriptive phrases such as "beautiful," "awesome," "very creative," "I really like it a lot," "I really appreciate you making the quilt," "I'm looking forward to putting it in my room," "It seems as though you all knew exactly what I liked," "I'm so glad that I get to sleep with a warm blanket tonight," "My grandmother knitted quilts, so I know it's made with hard work and the handiwork is amazing," "This special quilt is now a part of my family and will be passed on for generations," and "I will cherish it forever".

This was the most poignant of them all:

"Thank you so much. Honest, I'm pregnant and it's hard to get comfy, but right when I felt this blanket I wanted to fall asleep. It also gives me comfort because I just lost my Mom and this really reminded me of her. She's only been gone three months and this is really helping comfort me. Thank you so much."

And this from our former Community Quilts co-chair about our quilts going to veterans:

"This was beautiful. I type this sitting in my car after driving to the Ventura veteran's home. They gave me a tour of this new facility. I was greeted by the veterans and staff with warmth. I found the home decorated with donated items, including quilts hung in the public areas, on beds, and on their room walls. It was a privilege to see all of this and know that our guild brings joy to those who have served their country and those who are serving these vets."

Block of the Month

KEEP IT SCRAPPY: FISHFUL THINKING

Just as we have gotten you accustomed to this year's "Keep It Scrappy" rules, we are going to make an exception for this cheerful September block. #1 Instead of the usual white or cream background, the background for this block must be LIGHT BLUE.... think water! #2 All scraps do not HAVE TO be different. You may use the same fabric more than once if you wish.

FABRIC:

Background: Light blue [to indicate water]

Scraps: You will need a variety of bright fabrics (batiks would work well)

The winner may want to sew a button or a bead here to indicate an eye. You may want to tack one on for her

CUTTING:

From background fabric:

- Cut 5 squares 3 7/8"
- Cut 1 rectangle 3 1/2" x 12 1/2" and 1 rectangle 3 1/2" x 9 1/2"

From scraps:

- Cut 1 square 3 1/2" and 11 squares 3 7/8"

ASSEMBLY:

Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of the 3 7/8" background squares. Match these 5 background squares with 5 of the 3 7/8" scrap squares right sides together. Stitch 1/4" from both sides of the diagonal line. Cut apart on the diagonal line. Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of 3 of the remaining scrap squares. Match them right sides together with the other 3 remaining scrap squares. Stitch 1/4" from both sides of the diagonal line. Cut apart on the diagonal line. Press and trim to 3 1/2". Lay out the squares as shown in the diagram and piece together to form the "nine-patch fish" square. Press. At this point, your block should be 9 1/2" square.

Sew the 9 1/2" x 3 1/2" rectangle to the bottom of the "fish". Press. Sew the 12 1/2" x 3 1/2" rectangle to the left side of the "fish". Your block should now be 12 1/2" square.

These blocks may be set square with one another for fish angling downward or upward, or set on point. There are a variety of ways to set these blocks to make an adorable quilt!

If you have any questions or problems, please ask us.
