December 15th Board Mtg.

Meeting begins at 6:30 p.m. in Maravilla's Galleria room.

December 17th Deadline

Newsletter articles due for January edition

Coastal Quilters Guild Annual Holiday Party!

Bring a favorite dessert for a fabulous sweet potluck AND meet MYSTERY GUEST: Charlotte Kruk. You may have seen her wearable sculpture of a matador at the Pacific International Quilt Festival a few years ago. Come early to the meeting to see some of Charlotte's work up close and personal. (You can see more of Miss Charlotte's work at www.krukart.com.)

Community Quilts

We continue to be amazed at all the wonderful quilted items turned in at each guild meeting. Our thanks to all. And a special thanks to Marty Frolli for promoting our Christmas stocking cause in her classes.

The final collection of Christmas stockings will be at the December 8 meeting. A representative from St. Vincent's will be there to see the wonderful stockings and tell us a bit about the St. Vincent's Family Strengthening Program.

Our next focus will be the placemats with the appliquéd heart for Food from the Heart. These are due at the February 9 meeting. We will also offer kits and receive placemats for the Community Action Commission's Mobile Meals.

We continue to need baby quilts, kid quilts and adult quilts for St. Vincent's and TAPP. These will be disbursed in 2012. There are kits available for these quilts.

You can help Community Quilts save money. The Guild is able to purchase Hobbs batting by the roll at discount when we collect and send in their UPC labels. Cut the UPC label from the batting bag and bring it to the Community Quilts' table.

REMINDER: Open Sew on Saturday, January 28, 2012, hosted by Community Quilts. Goleta Valley Community Center from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. We will have kits for placemats and shopping bags available. Use our kits or bring your own supplies — or work on your own projects.

More Guild History on Our Website

Good news! We have made wonderful progress on our archiving project of posting copies of our Coastlines newsletters to our website in an accessible format for anyone wishing to do some guild research or to learn more about our history. This can be especially helpful for those committees who may have incomplete records! Check them out at www.coastalquilters.org.

It has been over two years since Darilyn Kisch, Bonnie Barber and I first got together to discuss guild history archiving possibilities on our website. We thought, "What better way to do that than by using our newsletters!" Bonnie immediately began posting the current newsletters on the website, but it was not until the past couple of months that we have been diligently archiving older issues.

The monthly newsletters record all of our quilt shows, community projects, Blocks of the Month, guest speakers and workshops, guild officers, committee activities and volunteers, and other special events. Besides that, there are lots of other interesting articles and quilting tips, too!

Here is a list of the issues we are still looking for:

2007 – January, March and May only

ALL YEARS PRIOR TO 2004 – ANY issues we can locate would be most welcome to help preserve our history! We have managed to find a few from 2003, 2002 and 2000, but we would LOVE to be able to fill in ALL of the "blanks" if possible. Check the website regularly to watch our progress and to learn which issues are still missing.

A Bit of Fun

Bonnie and I are working on an archiving project on the website to chronicle the guild history by archiving past newsletters. In doing so, I was happily reading through some OLD newsletters, reliving past events, and came across the following item in the July 2004 issue — compliments of then-editor Susan Carty. It struck me as so thought-provoking and still timely that I thought we should share it with our members again, many of whom have never seen it before:

MY MOTTO:

No one expects the stamp collector to actually mail letters with his stamps.

No one expects the coin collector to use his coins in a vending machine for a soda.

So why does everyone expect me to use my fabric collection to actually sew anything?

This wonderful saying originally came from Zook's Fabric Store in Intercourse, Pennsylvania in the center of the Amish country in Lancaster County. Susan had recently returned from a trip there and was quite taken with the store and its "goods". Their website is www.zandsfabrics.com.

— Kathy "the Rambling" Rose

Road to California Bus Trip

Once again we are headed to Ontario Convention Center for the Road to California Quilt Show. The date is Saturday, January 21, 2012. The cost of the trip is $40 and includes admission to the show. The cost for non-members is $45. This year's featured artist is Susan Else.

Our first pickup Saturday morning will be at Goleta Airbus headquarters at 7 a.m. Next stop will be St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, boarding at 7:15, departing at 7:30. Next stop will be IHOP in Carpinteria at 7:45, then on to Ventura with pickup location to be determined. We will arrive at the convention center between 9:30 and 10 a.m. We will be departing the show at 4 p.m. and should be back in Santa Barbara between 6:30 and 7 p.m.

We started the signups at the November meeting and will continue with signups at the December meeting with payment due at that time. If you are thinking of traveling with us, please contact Patty Six at 569-9968 or rpsix@aol.com. Let's fill this bus and have a good time.

From the President's Desk

The third Saturday of the month is a trying time for me as my newsletter article is due. When I agreed to take on the responsibility of president of the guild, I don't think I understood how challenging this little task would be. As much as I talk, it's hard to think of things to say in a newsletter format, so thanks for putting up with me.

It's a beautiful fall in Santa Barbara and the beginning of the holiday season. If you're anything like me, your to-do list might be a bit intimidating and probably needs to be pared down. I have the most optimistic approach to how much I can accomplish and ALWAYS underestimate how much time is really required to complete the projects. Add my full-time job, meetings and visiting family to my schedule and I'm a bit overwhelmed. Every year I think I will start sooner or do fewer projects but that never happens. I'm sure some of you are in the same boat and the good news is that, in just over a month, we will start a new year with new projects and new inspiration!

If you have been following my newsletter articles, you know by now that I love to learn new techniques and styles of quilting even if I don't think it really fits with my individual style. To that end, I play hooky from work on the second Friday of every month to take the guild-sponsored workshop. November brought us Mary Lou Weidman's Flower Power. This outside-the-box stuff is a real challenge to me, but I plowed through the class and actually made a few blocks that looked somewhat like what they were supposed to. Since UFOs stress me out, I spent Friday night and Saturday making a few more blocks and finished the quilt top. No quilting or finishing until after my holiday projects, but I'm happy with the result. You can see the photo on my Facebook page if you are interested. Speaking of Facebook, Bonnie Barber does a great job of keeping our Coastal Quilters page current with lots of great information and reminders. Check it out!

December will be our holiday potluck with a fabulous speaker showing us her fashion sculptures made from things other than fabric. It should be an entertaining evening. There is no workshop in December, but we have some fabulous speakers and workshops lined up for 2012. Don't miss your opportunity to try something new at a great price!

I hope you can look forward to the holiday season and time with family and friends. Even though I love my projects, I know it is my time that is the most precious gift I can give.

Quilt 'til you wilt,
Irelle

Future Programs

JANUARY

Melody Crust, Quilt Toppings: Fun & Fancy Embellishments. Quilters are a notoriously restless group, always seeking new ways to express their creativity. Melody's lecture taps into the strong emerging trend toward embellishment of quilt surfaces. Paint, foil, paint sticks, thread, crayons, buttons, ribbons, and beads are all readily available, fun, easy, and non-messy ways to add that final design element to traditional and non-traditional quilts. For more information, visit: www.melodycrust.com melodycrust.blogspot.com

January 13 Workshop: Simple Surfaces. Learn all about paint sticks and foiling on fabric. Applying foil or paint sticks to silk or cotton is easy, fun, and permanent. This informative hands-on workshop is for both traditional and non-traditional quilters. Kit fee $33.

FEBRUARY

Ann Turley, Confessions of the Quilt Police. So many quilters just don't understand what happens to their quilt during the judging process. Ann will take us through a mock judging, start to finish, in an effort to demystify the judging arena. You will learn just what it takes to get your quilt the recognition it deserves—great to know with our show in the fall. www.annturley.info

February 10 Workshop: Making Faces. Here is an opportunity to release your collective creative potential by making a small portrait quilt. Spend the day exploring color, texture, distortion, manipulation and embellishment.

MARCH

Coast Quilters' Challenge (see instructions on page 4 and entry form insert.)

Coast Lines is published monthly by:
Coastal Quilters of Santa Barbara, Inc.
P.O. Box 6341, Santa Barbara, CA 93160
<http://www.coastalquilters.org>
Subscriptions are free to members.

The Doorway Challenge 2012 Coastal Quilters Challenge

Still undecided on a theme for the 2012 Doorway Challenge quilt? Let us suggest another option: A FOCUS FABRIC

Wander through all those fabulous fabrics in your stash and let one come to you. It could be that fabric so beautiful that you cannot take your eyes off it, or it could be that quirky, fun fabric you picked up on a whim. It could also be that fabric that's really not you, but something said, "Buy me." It could be batik, Asian, reproduction, ethnic, or...

Ok, you have the basis for your challenge. So what do you do now?

- How about going scrappy?
- How about doing a color blend?
- How about going mostly or all monochromatic?

Come see our new monochromatic quilt sample this month! (An added hint: your framework does not have to be the same fabric.)

— Marty Frolli and Barb Postma, Co-chairs

The Doorway Challenge Requirements

1. The entry must be a quilt of 3 layers and quilted by hand or machine.
2. Entry must hang in the vertical orientation. The perimeter of the quilt is limited to 134" or less.
3. Entry must be readily recognizable as a derivative of the door pattern presented:
  - The quilt may represent a door itself or depict areas within or outside of a door
  - Units and framework may be made larger or smaller. Units within the frames may be added or deleted.
  - Borders may be added, as long as the perimeter does not exceed 134". (Pattern + 2" borders = 134".)
4. The door pattern must be used on the front of the quilt.
5. Appliqué and embellishments are encouraged.
6. Only 1 entry per member. A 4" hanging sleeve must be sewn to the back of each entry. Please cover any identifying quilt label. Quilts must be submitted in a labeled pillow case and accompanied by a completed entry form.

In fairness to all participants, only entries that meet the challenge requirements will be accepted. Although we encourage visiting guests at the presentation, voting will be restricted to members only.

Inspired by Doorway to China Quilt Block. Used with permission from McCall's Quilting Magazine. Original pattern appeared in October 2009 issue.

Fabric Needed:

- 1 yard total of one or more fabrics for background.
- 1 yard total of one or more fabrics for framework.
- 1 yard for backing 1/4 yard for binding

Block of the Month for January

KEEP IT SCRAPPY: WINTER SNOWFLAKES

January's "not quite so scrappy" block portrays the cold days of winter. It brings to mind a quiet blanket of snowflakes covering the ground after the busy holiday season. You will only use two fabrics....a pale blue (think of ice or a pale winter sky) and a white background (think freshly fallen snow).

FABRIC:

Background: One white fabric

Scraps: One pale blue fabric

CUTTING:

From background fabric: Cut 5 squares 3" and cut 8 squares 3 3/8"

From pale blue fabric: Cut 5 squares 3" and cut 8 squares 3 3/8"

ASSEMBLY:

Draw a diagonal line on the wrong side of the 3 3/8" background squares. Match these 8 background squares with the 8 - 3 3/8" pale blue squares right sides together. Stitch 1/4" from both sides of the diagonal line. Cut apart on the diagonal line. Press and trim to 3".

Lay out the squares as shown in the diagram and piece together to form the block. The block should be 13" square.

Following this method, you will not have any leftover half square-triangles but you may still want to make multiple blocks to increase your chance to win! (Just please remember to submit an entry slip for each block you make!)

If you have any questions or problems, please ask us.

- Knotty Threads

Door Prizes

The winners of the door prizes on November 10 were: Barbara MacCallum, Naomi Hicks, Melissa Frolli and Erin Lennor. Erin just joined and this was her first meeting — what a great welcome!

Our thanks goes out to our donors: Grant House (see his new location in Quilting Resources), Quilt Ventura, Art & Jenny's and Craft Essentials.

If you locate printed copies of any of the missing issues, bring them to me at any guild meeting and I will scan them so they can be added to our website. If you do have copies that can be emailed, send them to me at krose@jordanos.com.

A big thank you to everyone who has helped out so far with this project, including Marty Frolli, Sue Kadner, Darilyn, Karen Pickford, and especially Bonnie, our webmaster. She has done a great job organizing them for easy access on our website, as well as our growing gallery of photographs.

I have really been having fun reading the older issues we have located thus far. There is much that I have forgotten about some of our past activities, and I have gained a new appreciation for the value of this project as a simple and permanent way to record key events in our history.

We are counting on all of you to help us with this important project!

— Kathy "the Rambling" Rose

LIKE Us On Facebook!

Coastal Quilters is now on Facebook and you can easily find us at www.facebook.com/CoastalQuilters. If you are on Facebook, please find us and LIKE us. We will be announcing events, issuing reminders, sharing ideas, quilt projects, whatever strikes us as being of interest to our quilting community. We hope you will contribute to keeping our page energized by visiting often.

If you are not a member of Facebook, consider joining. It's easy, just go to www.facebook.com and sign on. Then let them help you find your friends via your e-mail address books. You will have absolute control over your page. Once established, you will not only be able to follow Coastal Quilters, but you will probably establish new relationships with old friends and family, as well as quilters in our community and beyond. Try it; you'll like it. Really!

Coastal Quilters Guild Inc

<http://www.coastalquilters.org>

Coastal Quilters Guild of Santa Barbara and Goleta is a non-profit, educational and charitable organization. The purpose of the Guild is to educate its members about the history and preservation of the art form of quilting and its related topics; to learn new techniques and improve skills; and to inform the community at large about our quilt making heritage.

Guild Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month at:

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Coastal Quilters Guild Doorway Challenge 2012
Entry Form

Challenge Requirements

1. The entry must be a quilt of 3 layers and quilted by the participant by hand or machine.
2. Entry must hang in the vertical orientation. The perimeter of the quilt is limited to 134" or less.
3. Entry must be readily recognizable as a derivative of the doorway pattern presented.
The quilt may represent a door itself or depict areas within or outside of a door.
Units and framework may be made larger or smaller. Units within the frames may be added or deleted.
Borders may be added, as long as the perimeter does not exceed 134". (Pattern + 2" borders = 134")
4. The door pattern must be used on the front of the quilt.
5. Appliqué and embellishments are encouraged.
6. Only 1 entry per member.
A 4" hanging sleeve must be sewn to the back of each entry.
Please cover any identifying quilt label.
Quilts must be submitted in a labeled pillow case and accompanied by a completed entry form.

In fairness to all participants, only entries that meet the challenge requirements will be accepted.
Although we encourage visiting guests at the presentation, voting will be restricted to members only.

Quilts due: February 9th CQG meeting or contact Barb Postma (964-0103) or Marty Frolli (968-4781).
Presentation: March 8th CQG meeting.
