January Meeting: Jerry Granata — The Mantality of Quilting

A lecture and trunk show

In this lecture and trunk show, Jerry takes you on his quilting journey. From learning how to put two pieces of fabric together, to winning awards at International quilt shows, he humorously takes you along on his quilting train ride... while occasionally de-railing! It's a trip you definitely don't want to miss!

A little more about this Renaissance Man...

Jerry has had a love of art since he was a child and it has taken him in many directions. He served 21 years in the Armed Forces as a U.S. Navy musician. His interest in the fine arts led him to studies in drawing, design, and oil painting. He has explored all sewing techniques including garment construction, costumes, heirloom sewing, quilt piecing, appliqué, and free-motion quilting. His diverse background can be found woven into his local, regional, and national award winning quilts. A quilter for over 37 years, Jerry brings a passion for quilting and teaching, with a dash of humor, to all levels of quilters from beginner to advanced.

Workshop January 10: "Quilting with Unusual Fabrics"

In this exciting workshop, Jerry takes you down the aisles you usually pass by in a fabric shop. All those beautifully silky, shiny, luscious fabrics that you wouldn't think would work in a quilt might be just the things you've been looking for! He also shows you how to quilt with vinyl, theatrical gels, and even aluminum foil!

And don't think this workshop is just for art/contemporary/modern quilters. Traditional quilters will appreciate the way these unusual fabrics work so beautifully in such patterns as Log Cabin, Nine Patch, Bear's Paw, Lone Star, and many others! This is definitely an "out-of-the-box" experience so if you're ready, prepare to be amazed!

What's ? on the WEB SITE

What page on our website lists brief descriptions of most of the activities of "Our Guild"? If you wanted to find out what books we have in our library, where would you find the link? Want to know who our board members are? Looking for the guild By-Laws?

These are all good questions, because none of these have visible links from the homepage or on our main navigation bar on each page. Note: You probably know that when you navigate to www.coastalquilters.org that you will arrive at what we call "our homepage", right?

OK, then, now that we're all on the same page, pun intended, did you know that we have a pretty nice piece on the history of the guild? If you're a new guild member, then you really might want to read up on our past. Do you know who started our guild and was the first president? Actually, would you like to know who all of our presidents have been over the years? Where is that information?

By now, you know what page we're discussing, don't you? It's no mystery. You will find it right there on our main navigation bar and it is called OUR GUILD. Go ahead, click on it and read up on who we are, what we do, when we do it, and more.

As a little incentive to check out the OUR GUILD links, when you check in at the January meeting, enter our little contest to see who can provide the name of our 1997 guild president. Maybe you will win a few raffle tickets! Shhhh. Don't tell anyone the answer.

—Bonnie Barber, Webmaster

From the President's Desk

This year's holiday party was great! On behalf of the guild, let me offer thanks to all those individuals who contributed their time and talents to make the event happen.

As the New Year begins, I am reviewing my accomplishments in the past year. Here's the rundown on how I did with last year's resolutions.

- I started more quilts than I finished.
- I attended 4 classes, two guild workshops, one SBCCCLL Class, and one three day workshop at a quilt shop
- Unfinished projects moved along slowly, I completed a couple of tops, but didn't actually finish anything!
- I organized my fabric, and it's still organized!

My overarching theme was to create space, physical space was fairly easy to achieve, but I also realized that I needed emotional space. I'm in the process of taming my critical voice to allow myself to freely experiment without so much fear of failure.

One new thing I did last year was to cut and package the fabric and instructions for a quilt, thus creating a quilt kit for later use.

This year I want to choose one simple thing on which to focus, and then establish, each month, a smaller goal so that I can keep in mind what is important in the present.

The question is; what is one thing I could focus on for a year that would enhance my life significantly? I have yet to settle on my one thing for this year, but I will choose soon.

Best wishes for an enjoyable and productive New Year!

— Carol Fay

Newsletter Access Update

Bonnie Barber and I are pleased to tell you that our historical archiving project of placing copies of all Coastlines issues on our website for historical and research purposes is finished – or more correctly, we should say, “Almost”!

You may now find copies of all newsletters from January 1993 through December 2013, plus one from March 1990 -- with only two issues missing from February 2000 and July 2002! That's 20 years worth of memories, folks!

Unfortunately, we are also missing the ENTIRE YEAR OF 1995 – we suspect that someone may have the big, white, loose leaf historical binder from that year somewhere in their home, or perhaps it's hidden away in our storage locker. If you have that binder, please turn it in to Bonnie or myself at the next Guild meeting so that we can finally complete this lengthy project and make our entire history available on our website for all of our members.

We PROMISE you can remain anonymous!

Future Programs

FEBRUARY

Sheila Frampton-Cooper: Lecture February 13/Workshop February 14: *Express Your True Self: One Piece at a Time

Explore the mystery and excitement of creating a pieced abstract quilt with little or no plan. We will discuss basic design and composition, color and value, quilting, and most importantly, trusting your instincts. I will demonstrate construction techniques for sewing curved seams and discuss some of the challenges you may run into with spontaneous design and piecing. www.Zoombaby.com

MARCH

Cara Gulati on March 13: *So, You Want To Make an Art Quilt?!

Would you like some inspiration to get started making art quilts? Are you afraid that it's too hard and only gifted people can make art quilts? Then this lecture is for you! I will talk about how to get started making art quilts from a traditional stand point and work my way up to making the giant art quilts like the 3-D Explosion series. I will discuss art fabrics and techniques to make them as well as show samples. This is a trunk show if you are within driving distance! www.doodlepress.com

Workshop March 14: SCROLL-A-LUSCIOUS!

3-D Wrapping Paper Scrolls!

Using stripes and tone-on-tone fabrics to create this illusion of the third dimension!

APRIL

Bobbi Finley on April 10

Bobbi's lecture includes a digital slide presentation to introduce the historic Tile Quilts that inspired our contemporary interpretations. Approximately 20 slides are shown. The slide presentation is followed by a trunk show of about 12 contemporary tile quilts. This is followed by another group of a dozen or so contemporary quilts which are also inspired by historic quilts, including quilts from our new book, Fresh Perspectives, Re-inventing 18 Classic Quilts from the International Quilt Study Center & Museum

Join us on the Board!!!

We would like to encourage all Guild members to consider serving on the Guild Board or as a Committee Chair in the future. As the Parliamentarian who will run the elections, I have asked members of the Board as well as committee chairs to write a bit about themselves and about role in the Guild. I hope you enjoy these little bits of information and that you will consider a leadership role in the Coastal Quilter's Guild.

—Mary Maxwell, Parliamentarian

I'm Shirley Morrison.

I've been in the Quilt Guild for about 6 years, joining shortly after I retired.

I have only been quilting a short while and still consider myself a beginner, possibly a confident beginner, but I don't feel confident starting new projects.

I'm not a specialist in any one type of quilting, not a specialist at all. I now know that I don't really like to applique and have even heard it described as the "A" word, so I know I am not alone. I have found it hard to quilt as such and do not feel competent to undertake quilting too large a project. One delightful guest speaker at one of the meetings said something to which I seriously relate. She said she quilts by "check-book". What a good idea for me and my small Elna. I do enjoy making tops with every intention of finishing them, if not by myself, then by checkbook.

I enjoy the camaraderie and support that I receive from other members of the guild. Also since I love fabric itself, I enjoy seeing how creative others are with the material itself. The chance to see professional quilters, I find most exciting and the classes that are held monthly have introduced me to many different approaches to quilting.

Because I was a librarian in my professional life, I briefly held the post of librarian for the guild.

I currently am Recording Secretary. I take notes at the board meetings and the general meetings, which means I have to be on time and I cannot mess around during the General Meetings, but must pay attention.

The recording secretary is responsible for recording minutes of all meetings, proceedings and actions of the board, committees of board and members' meetings. The minutes are transcribed and distributed. A permanent record is kept of meeting minutes and copies of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and a record of the corporation's members.

It helps to have good hearing and typing ability as well. It is necessary to have a computer and to be savvy about using it.

I would be happy to give guidance to the next person in the job. Mary Maxwell, my predecessor was certainly helpful with me.

The job could seem like a drudge position, but it isn't. It is interesting knowing what is coming up for the guild and to know where help will be needed in the future. I feel I am participating even though I am not a very prolific quilter. I am always inspired by what I see and hear and by getting to know the talented members of the guild.

On Saturday morning if there are any problems arriving at the bus, you may call Marilyn Martin's cell: 570-5588.

Block of the Month 2013-14: EVERYBODY IS A STAR

February's Block: Indian Star

Another star courtesy of the Kansas City Star circa 1937, this one is also simple to make since it's just half-square triangles. We've chosen red, pink and white in honor of Valentine's Day.

Cut the following:

FABRIC

White

PIECES

» Two 3½" squares

» Four 4" squares

Pink

» Four 4" squares

Red

» Six 3½" squares

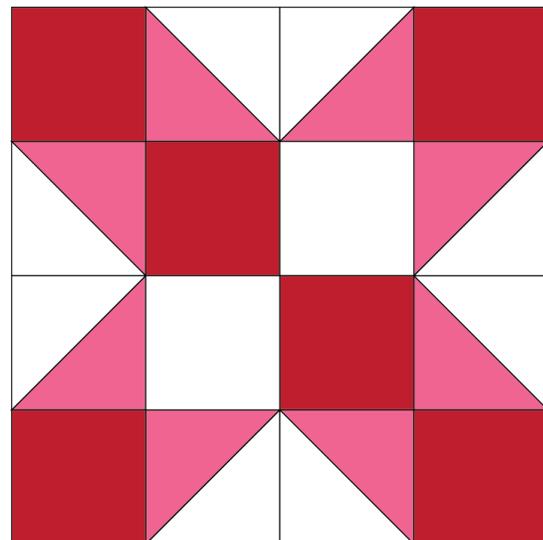

Diagram A

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

Draw a diagonal line from corner to corner on the wrong side of the light 4" squares. Place each light 4" square atop the medium 4" square, right sides facing together.

Sew ¼" on both sides of the diagonal line. Cut on the line and press toward the medium fabric. You will have eight half-square triangles.

Assemble the units in rows as shown in Diagram A.

The finished block should look like Diagram B.

Note: Having trouble making your ½ square triangles come out to the correct size? Try cutting the fabric squares larger by 1/4 to 3/8 inch and then trim down the ½ square triangle squares to the correct block size. A little extra work, but they come out perfectly every time.
