April, May, June – Salads
July, August, September – Appetizers/Fruits/Veggies
October, November, December –
Main Dishes, to serve at least 8

This month, we will have no door prizes, treasure table, library withdrawal, community quilts (except for turn-in of completed projects).

BOOK SALE!!!

Be prepared to leave with some great books. All proceeds go into the General Fund. All donated books are checked against main book list and if we already have it, it will be added to the Book Sale. Many of the books have great information for new quilters. Let your librarians, Pam Holst, Kathy Piasecki and Michele Garbarino, know when you see a book that would be an interesting addition to the Guild Library. We will purchase it! We will also be lending out templates soon, we just need to figure out how to bag and hang them!

President's Message

Summer brings the promise of warm days, cool evenings, gatherings of friends and lots of laughter. The July Guild meeting promises this and more; wonderful food, quilt projects to share and books to help with that new project. So join your friends, share in their laughter and meet the new president...Me!

We have a wonderful guild. Our members have contributed generously to our community. The success of our guild has been dependent upon its members and their role in its survival. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the members of our guild who have come forth and taken Board and Committee positions. However, we still have a couple of jobs not filled. Can you help? Speaking of help, have you volunteered to help during the quilt show? Now is the time to step forward.

One of my goals over the next year is to label each and every quilt I make. Why, because there are thousands of quilts across the world that are a mystery. Who made them? Why? What was their story? A few years ago, I read an article about the hundreds of quilts sent from Canada to England during WWII. Researchers were trying to identify who had made these surviving quilts, with no success. We have the same problem in the USA. Guilds across the country donate quilts to other non-profits and never label them with the quiltmaker(s) name. Do you want to be part of the nameless or do you want to give a story with your quilt? Write me, email me, tell me what you think.

Coming in August: The Joyful Quilter

Our August speaker is Pamela Dransfeldt; who has turned a lifelong enthusiasm for quilting into a successful home business. Pamela started quilting in 1977 and began entertaining thoughts of machine quilting in 1999 before purchasing her first machine in 2000. It filled what used to be her family's living room and dining room! She started her business with a small, but loyal customer base all the while continuing to work part-time in a hospital billing office. Pamela continued along this path for seven years before retiring and focusing fully on machine quilting in 2007. Pamela maintains a busy schedule that keeps quilts lining her machine, while still providing quality and time her customers deserve. Pamela regularly takes classes to continue learning and improving her quilting skills. She is able to provide customers with a variety of quilting options, from edge to edge pantographs to detailed custom work.

Pamela also makes her own quilts and collects vintage quilts. Pamela seeks out signature quilts or quilts with open spaces that she can fill in. She says, "I love quilting and love sharing quilting with others!"

Her talk is titled "The Life of a Long-Arm Quilter."

Quilt Show Pre-sale Tickets

2016 Harvest of Colors

The quilt show is quickly approaching and the deadline for quilt entries is looming. The next meeting will be before the regular guild meeting in July. We will start at 5:30.

We have received over 2 dozen registration forms for our special exhibit "Quilting in Paradise - Santa Barbara County". With these small pieces and the two large quilts - the Natural History Museum Quilt and the Santa Barbara Quilt that has been in Lois Capps office, we are confident this exhibit will be a great representation of Santa Barbara County. PLEASE NOTE: Special Entry quilts are due at the July guild meeting or you must make arrangements to get them to Linda Estrada by July 15th.

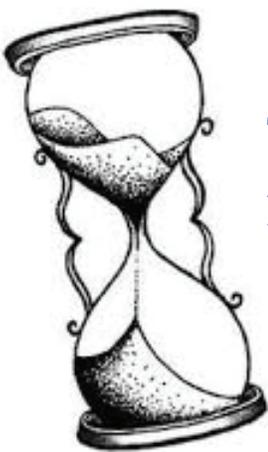

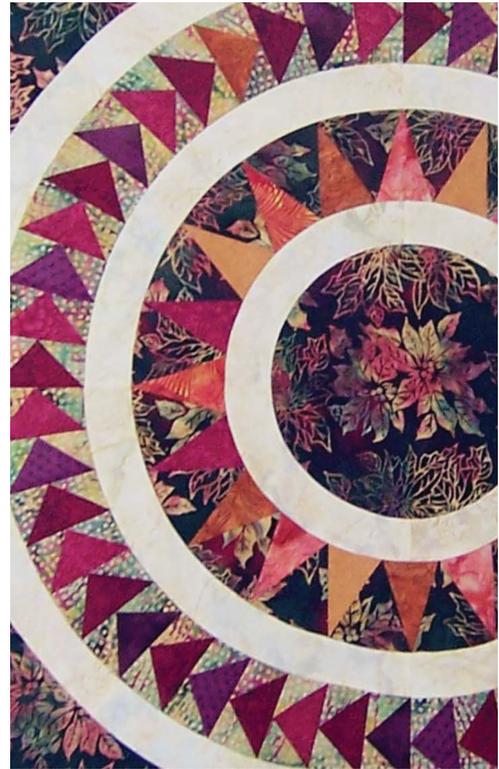

The Quilt Show registration and judging forms will be up on the website soon. Remember that your quilt must be FINISHED by the August meeting so the registration form will contain the exact measurement of your quilt. The registration forms, including photos, will be due at the August meeting or you can mail them to Julie Mock before August 11th.

The volunteer sign-up sheets continue at our guild meetings so be sure to choose the time and position that best suits your availability. We need EVERYONE to participate in some way. Please be generous with your time, as the show needs you.

This show is a Member's Showcase and we would like ALL of our members to participate. I hope you are all busy quilting those beautiful show quilts!

I guess NOW would be a good time to get started on mine. I hope the rest of you are better with your time than I am. All I can say is that I work well under pressure.

Time to Renew for 2016-2017

Membership forms are available at the check-in desk at Guild meetings or can be downloaded from our web page (coastalquilters.org) under "Our Guild/Membership" - or see link on the home page.

Our Rates remain the same as last year: membership $35. Optional: mailing newsletter $15; mailing directory $2.

Additional donation to support Guild activities

Our donation campaign this last year was quite successful and your Board is very appreciative of everyone's contribution. For this next year, the Harvest of Colors Quilt Show will be our main fundraiser and we do not anticipate needing additional donations - but they are always welcome and will be put to good use.

Membership in our Guild brings many rewarding benefits. We look forward to seeing your name on the renewal list for the 2016-2017 year.

50 Quilts = 50 Lives Changed

Thanks to our members, we've had a steady influx of quilts each month and now we have more quilts on hand than we can store – so it's Delivery Time again! We have thirty-three children's quilts for CALM, fourteen quilts for Hospice and three for Veterans in Hospice Care. In addition, we've held back eight quilts for the Quilt Show. By the time you read this, these quilts will already be bringing joy and comfort to the lives of fifty people!

We also have five lap quilts set aside for Sarah House, which is a residence for very low income elderly people who would otherwise be homeless. They requested eight lap quilts, and since their request is so small, we hope for more. Many of you have also been very busy with Cradle Quilts and bedding sets – we have fifty completed sets already, before the kits even became available! And they are so very adorable – so many little girls will be thrilled to receive these for Christmas gifts!

We do have kits ready to roll and many were signed out last month. Unfortunately, with the tables set up for a bountiful potluck picnic at the July meeting, there is not space for a regular Community Quilts table; we will have a spot to accept your finished quilts and donations of fabric, but we will not have kits available to sign out. However, if you are anxious to get started on your cradle sets, you can call or email Carol Barringer to make arrangements to meet. In August we'll really get things rolling; the deadline for cradle sets is the October 13 meeting.

Thank you for your support of Community Quilts. Keep quilting, keep donating – keep on changing lives! We truly make such a difference in our community!

Carol Barringer, Community Quilts

Take the Plunge!

The judging committee encourages you to submit your quilt(s) to be judged in the Harvest of Colors Quilt Show in September. We think it is a great opportunity to receive an unbiased written critique of your work. The judge will give you several positive comments as well as one or two suggestions for improvement. Please know your critique is confidential and is a positive experience!

You can find the judging forms on our web site. There will be a form to enter the show and a separate form for judging. There is a $10.00 fee for judging and you will need to attach a photo to the judging form. There is a limit of two quilts per person to be judged and a limit of 85 quilts for judging altogether. Quilt Categories and their descriptions will be listed on the judging forms.

www.coastalquilters.org/quiltshows/QuiltJudgeTips.pdf

Our judge this year, Ann Turley, has written an article "Tips From a Quilt Judge". The link appears below.

We would also like to encourage you to volunteer to help us on Judge Day, Monday September 12. Sign-ups will be coming soon.

For any questions please contact one of us on the judging committee,
Patty Six, Carol Fay,
Pam Holst or Patti Hunter.
